he should be thereunto required would well and truly content and pay And whereas the aforesaid Ignatius afterwards to wit on the day and year aforesaid at the County aforesaid in consideration that he the said William had at the special Instance and request of him the said Ignatius sold and delivered to him the said Ignatius two other Negro Slaves named Will and Sall he the said Ignatius on the day and year aforesaid at Washington County aforesaid upon himself assumed and to him the said William then and there faithfully promised that he the said Ignatius when afterwards he should be thereunto required would well and truly content and pay to him the said William all such sums of Money as the said Negroes last mentioned were worth at the time of their Sale and delivery as aforesaid And the aforesaid William in fact saith that the Negroes last mentioned so as aforesaid sold and delivered to the said Ignatius were reasonably worth at the time of their sale the sum of One hundred and eighty pounds Current Money whereof the aforesaid Ignatius afterwards to wit on the day and year aforesaid at the County aforesaid had Notice Nevertheless the said Ignatius his several promises and Assumptions aforesaid so as aforesaid made not regarding but minding and fraudulently intending him the said William in this behalf craftily and subtilly to deceive and defraud the aforesaid several sums of Money or any part of either of them to him the said William hath not contented or paid (although so to do the aforesaid Ignatius was afterwards to wit on the day and year aforesaid and often afterwards at the County aforesaid by the said William — requested) but the same sums of Money or any part of either of them to him the said William to content and pay he the said Ignatius hath hitherto altogether refused and still doth refuse to the damage of him the said William in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds Current Money of Maryland and therefore he brings suit and so forth.
