and now here at this day to wit the second tuesday of October being the thirteenth day of the same month and the return day of the foregoing writ comes into the general court here the said Zachariah Maccubbin by his attorney aforesaid and the Sheriff of Baltimore county aforesaid to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed makes return thereof to the court here thus endorsed to wit: Made as per schedule & remains in the sheriffs hands for want of buyers. Thos. Rutter Sheriff.

To which aforegoing writ and return was annexed the following schedule to wit.

A Schedule of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of John Elder seized and taken at suit of Zachariah Maccubbin by virtue of a writ of fieri facias to the Sheriff of Baltimore county directed and also for public Dues Due to Thomas Rutter for the year 1788. And appraised by us the subscribers who were duly summoned and sworn given under our hands and seals this 13th. day of September 1789.

To wit. 568 acres land more or less called part of Adams Garden a 42/6 pr. acre.
18 acres of the above is called Little worth. 200 acres cleared.

Orlando G. Dorsey (Seal) Thos. Bennett (Seal) Samuel Bennett (Seal)
Test John Gwinn clerk.

William Smith
vs
Thomas Bond
James Baker and Samuel Strong.

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the eighth day of July in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred & eighty nine the said William Smith by Samuel Johnston his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the general court here the writ of the State of Maryland of venditioni exponas to the Sheriff of Baltimore county directed in the words and of the tenor following to wit: The State of Maryland sc. To the Sheriff of Baltimore county greeting. Whereas command was heretofore given you that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of Thomas Bond. James Baker and Samuel Strong late of Baltimore county otherwise called Thomas Bond James Baker and Samuel Strong of Baltimore county being in your bailiwick you should cause to be made as well the sum of one hundred and four pounds ten shillings and seven pence current money certain damages as the sum of four hundred and one pounds and three fifths of a pound of tobacco costs of suit and that you should have those sums before the Judges of our general court to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of May then next to render unto a certain William Smith the damages and costs of suit aforesaid whereof the said Thomas Bond. James Baker and Samuel Strong were convict on which said second tuesday of May in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and eighty nine you made return thereof to our Judges that by virtue of the aforesaid writ to you directed you made and levied a part of Stansburys Inheritance one hundred and forty five acres more or less. Lot number seventy five confiscated land containing twelve & a half acres to satisfy the said William Smith his debt damages and costs therein mentioned all all which premises were in your hands for want of buyers so that the debt damages and costs aforesaid you could not have as you were by our said writ commanded but for that the said tract of land and lot of ground so as aforesaid made remain unsold for want of buyers as by the return aforesaid appear therefore we command you that the said part of Stansburys Inheritance one hundred and forty five acres more or less. Lot number seventy five. Confiscated Land containing twelve and half acres so as aforesaid made you expose to sale and the money and tobacco thereupon arising you have before the Judges of our general court to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of October next to satisfy unto the said William Smith his debt damages and costs aforesaid and all such costs as hath accrued unto the said William Smith on the writ of fieri facias aforesaid and how you shall execute this writ that you make known unto our said Judges at the day and place aforesaid and have you then and there this writ witness the Honourable Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire chief Judge of our said court the 26th day of June anno Domini 1789.

Issued the 8th. day of July 1789. Saml. Johnston. Jno. Gwinn clk.

and now here at this day to wit the second tuesday of October being the thirteenth day of the same month and the return day of the foregoing writ comes into the general court here the said William Smith by his attorney aforesaid and the Sheriff of Baltimore county aforesaid to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed makes return thereof to the court here thus endorsed to wit: property sold & paid plaintiff £10:8:10.—

Thos. Rutter Shff. Test. John Gwinn clk.

Edward Loyd adm^r
of Edward Loyd a Anne Cooke ex^or of Thomas Holbyday

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the eighth day of July seventeen hundred and eighty nine the said Edward Loyd by Thomas Jennings his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the general court here the writ of the State of Maryland of fieri facias on devastavit to the Sheriff of Prince Georges county directed in the words and of the tenor following to wit: The State of Maryland sc. to the Sheriff of Prince Georges county greeting. Whereas we lately commanded David Stewart Esquire our late Sheriff of Anne Arundel County that of the goods and chattels which were of Thomas Hollyday deceased in the hands and possession of Ann Cooke surviving executrix of the testament and last will of the said Thomas Hollyday deceased he should cause to be made and levied as well the sum of two hundred and ten pounds sterling money a certain debt as also the sum of five hundred and nine pounds of tobacco cost of suit for which sums a certain Edward Loyd administrator of all & singular the goods and chattels rights and credits of Edward Loyd deceased recovered his Judgment for execution before the Judges of our general court on the second tuesday of October seventeen hundred and eighty six with the sum of five hundred and forty nine pounds of tobacco