Mr. Rich is well known in the Diocese of Easton. He has been for a number of years rector of Holy Trinity parish, Greensboro, and for two years past has been Secretery of the Convention. He has frequently visited Easton and is highly esteemed not only as a clergyman of great ability and worth, but also as a polished and courtly gentleman.

Excursion to Bay Ridge, M. P. Sunday School, Tuesday, Aug. 17th.

He Needed their Prayers.

A good Clergyman well known in Talbot who had been called some years ago to a field of wider influence, in preaching his farewell sermon spoke of his successor with sympathetic emotion, and added:

"When he comes among you, my Bretheren, pray for him—he will need your prayers."

Thursday is the big day at Ocean City. Take a day off and go. Close connection at Easton for D. & C. R. R. points, Oxford, &c., and at Hurlock for Cambridge and C. & S. points, both ways. Take advantage of the cheap Thursday rate.

Overheard.

"I tell you it may be so, but I have not got the best opinion of the Christianity of the male members of that Church."

"Well, I believe their Christianity may be all right, but it's their Democracy I doubt."

Hebron Camp, beginning July 30th and closes August 9th. The B. C. & A. Ry. will provide special accommodations for those wishing to attend this Camp on their trains, and will sell special low rate tickets from all stations for this occasion.

NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

Our Active Reporters Still on Deck—Their Interesting Budget.

The taxpayers of the county should remember that taxes paid this month are subject to a discount of 4 per cent.

While other parts of our country are suffering from an intensely hot wave, this section is enjoying seasonable summer weather. This is surely a favored spot.

The Easton girl is having a neck-and-neck race with the out-of-town summer girl this season, and between the two the Easton boy is having a hard time of it in keeping tally on "the words of his mouth and the meditations of his heart."

A well-known citizen of Easton said the other day that the farmers will be rather perplexed to know what to complain of this year, with a heavy wheat crop and good prises. It was suggested that they will take it out in complaining of the small amount that recently sprouted, as they must have something to complain of.

We consider the following truthful poem a gem in its way, brimful of spirit:

Kentucky! O, Kentucky?
I love your classic shades,
Where flirt the classic figures,
Of the dark-eyed Southern maids!
Where the mocking-bird is singing
'Mid the blossoms newly born!
Where the corn is full of kernels
And the colonels full of corn!

Housekeepers often notice that in damp weather in the summer the coffee becomes tasteless and insipid. Many do not connect the facts, but they are cause and effect. In the closets and on store shelves the ker nel will become tough and doughy, just as crackers are affected. An old housekeeper says that the flavor is restored by keeping the breakfast coffee over night in the warm oven and the dinner coffee through the day in the same place. Put the amount needed in a bowl, cover closely, and let the slow heat of the upper oven draw out the oil.

DELIGHTFUL SUMMER TOURS.

Two Tours to the North via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the convenience of those who seek the most attractive way of spending a Summer holiday, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged two delightful tours to the North, under the personally-conducted tourist system, July 27 and August 17. The points included in the itinerary and the country traversed abound in nature's beauties. No matter how much may be expected one cannot be disappointed in Watkins Glen Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Quebec Montreal, Au Sable Chasm, Lakes Champlain and George, Saratoga, or the Highlands of the Hudson.

Each tour will be in charge of one of the company's tourist agents assisted by an experienced lady as chaperon, whose especial charge will be unescorted ladies.

The rate of $100 from New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Trenton, Philadelphia Harrisburg, Baltimore, and Washington covers railway and boat fare for the entire round trip, parlor-car seats meals en route, hotel entertainment, transfer charges, carriage hire—in fact, every item of necessary expense.

Seen by our Somnambulist.

You must not fall into a deliquium of ecstay, Mr. Editor, about "the mistakes of Democrats." Graciously grant us your sympathy if nothing more. We have been browsing around the political fodder house on somewhat meagre stubble for about two years, looking long-eared enough. We intend to stampede through your ranks, and reenter in November the political clover field waving in its former luxuriance. No procrastination now in your County Convention. We want to know who we are to "buck" against, even before we know who of our party are to do the "bucking." You are building your political citidal too strong in the county. It must be stormed and captured, and all therein available must fall into our hands as trophies of our victorious assault. We are going to crack your political cocoanut in November and drink the milk. We're dry, I say.

Mr. Frank G. Wrightson will need to have the button holes of abdominal habiliments double stitched, or, better perhaps, wire worked; for the pull on them from now to the 2d of November will be something stupendous. From the hub of the Fourth will the political lullaby be hummed into his ear until he will perforce adopt Ulysses' dodge, or fall a victim to the blandishments of the professedly loyal characters. Our popular and astute Election Supervisor is too good a soul to have his tympanums expanded abnormally by the woe tales of the always neglected loyals. Therefore, it were well with him, maybe, if he purchase a cake of beeswax and prepare to barricade.

Mr. Harry Nicholson, of Baltimore is a boarder with Mr. and Mrs. John Yewell at the Rectory. He is a devotee of the bike, and brought his urban racer with him. When the modest stars are peeping through the mighty flood of silvery moon light, one may observe him with our cycling bells wheeling along our Unter den Linden: the party taking their evening constitutional. To one who travels solely on the soles of shank's mare, there is a sort of delicious vertigo in noting them as they glide along almost sylph-like as it were on the air. The whizzing of revolving wheels has a kind of tranquillizing effect in one's nebulous and troublous actuality. 'Tis a sedative, tending to assuage like a dose of primary day soothing syrup.
