SHORT NOTES OF INTEREST

WHAT OUR REPORTERS HAVE SEEN AND HEARD.

Curious Fact about Talbot Politics—The Hardware Emporium Improvements —Conservators of the Peace.

William H. Withgott, who some time ago bought the old Friend's school building on Bay street, has begun to remodel it into a machine shop. The interior partitions have been torn out throwing the whole into a large room. He will use an improved gas engine for power in his shop.

The erection of Cookman Methodist Episcopal Chapel, near St. Michaels, will be commenced soon. The building will be 24x36 feet. William Taylor, of Middletown, who owns a saw mill near the chapel site, has proffered the use of the mill for manufacturing framing, siding, sheathing, etc., for the chapel.

At their regular monthly meeting on Monday the Town Commissioners passed an order directing that a brick pavement be laid on the east side of Aurora street from South street to the alley at the Norfolk Manufacturing Compauy's shirt factory. They also gave orders for some pavement repairs.

Sheriff Seymour's deputies on Tuesday around polls in Easton were: Richard J. Jester, Eli Pratt, John O. Small, Charles H. Flynn, Enoch Covey, Daniel Montague, William J. Biery, Alfred Fluharty, Millard F. Coburn, William Robinson, James Plummer, and Elton Weatherlow.

It is rather curious that November 2, when the day of election, is alternately favorable to the Republicans and then to the Democrats of Talbot, as follows: 1875, Republican; 1880, Democratic; 1886, Republican; 1897, Democratic. This is not the case with any other date.

Congressman Howard who is to lecture in Easton on Thanksgiving night was in Denton and Greensboro last week and spoke to crowded houses. About 150 out of the 188 reserved chairs have been sold for the Easton lecture.

The Shannahan and Wrightson Hardware company have made some improvements in the offices of the firm. The private offices have been enlarged and that part devoted to the book-keepers, etc., have been remodeled.

It is said that it will cost $40,000 to repair the damage wrought by the wind and sea at Ocean City during the late storm. Cottages have been destroyed, hotels damaged and the board walks in many places washed away.

A number of Eastonians have expressed their intention of going to Baltimore next week te see the now noted ploy "The Sign of the Cross," which will be presented at Harris Academy, see page seven for particulars.

Sheriff Seymour and his assistants kept perfect order around the Court House on Tuesday, with the exception of one negro who had imbibed somewhat too freely of democratic beer, there were no arrests made.

It is desired that all members of Star of the East Lodge, Knights of Pythias be present at the regular meeting of the lodge on Monday evening as a matter of business of importance will be considered.

The convenience of the telephone system throughout the county was demonstrated forcibly on Tuesday evening as the returns came in, in some cases hours earlier than formerly.

Following the good example of Talbot county, the Wicomico commissioners are substituting terra cotta pipes for wooden bridges in small streams.

Talbot county circuit court will convene on Monday, 15th inst. Indications point to a short session at this time.

Mr. William T. A. Loockerman was the first voter in the third precinct of this district last Tuesday and also in 1896.

Mr. Sol. Pippin had a sale of fine mules on Wednesday at foot of Federal street and a number were sold.

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W.H.Norton, of Sutter Creek, Cal. "This cold left me with a cough, and I was expectorating all the time. The Remedy cured me, and I want all of my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by Harry Roberts, Druggist.

Maryland Christain Eudeavor Union.

The Eighth Annual Convention of the Maryland Christain Endeavor Union will meet in the Central Presbyterian Church, Eutaw Place near Dolphin street, Baltimore on Nov. 9, 10 and 11. Delegates have special reductions made on all lines of travel and arrangements are perfected in Baltimore for their entertainment

Most interesting programs are prepared and it is hoped a large gathering will be in attendance. If one intends going, notify Miss Martha Stewart, No. 522 N. Carey St., Balto., Md., without delay.

The demand for seats to hear Congressman Howard, Thanksgiving night is unprecedented. Only a few more left. Call quick at Leander R. Hoopers' Office.

We will save you 10 to 25 per cent on Carpets, Clothing, Shoes, Hats or anything in our line. J. E. SHANNAHAN.

ELECTION ECHOES.

Amusing Incidents of the Great Battle of Last Tuesday.

A number of amusing incidents occurred at the election on Tuesday.

One voter, and an educated man at that, could not "catch on" to the manner of folding the official ballot. The judge showed him a ballot as folded, but it was no good, and after about twenty minutes' effort he departed without voting.

In another precinct a voter with a lot of initials gave one more at the rail that he had given to the registrars. He was immediately challenged, and for an hour the voting was stopped, while the crowd in line muttered "curses not loud but deep." Finally he was permitted to vote, as the officer that registered him last year recognized him as the same man, and his extra initial did not disfranchise him.

A voter got a ballot and handed it to the judge without the semblance of a mark, going blissfully on his way under the impression that he had voted as he wished.

Another man had been given an impression paper to take a likeness of the emblem and his mark, upon presentation of which he was to get the "shekels." He, however, asked for assistance, and of course the paper was not used, so his franchise was of no financial benefit to him.

As an instance of how easily anything may be misunderstood, a message from Centreville stated that district had gone Republican, and in a few minutes it was noised abroad on the streets of Easton that the rock-ribbed DemocratieGibraltar of Queen Anne's had declared for protection and sound money.

One colored man went to democratic headquarters to get his pay for his vote; being sworn, he would have been paid had not he triumphantly drawn from his pocket the marked ballot "to prove" he placed his X in the democratic column.

THE HOUSES FOR WORSHIP.

What the Churches in and Near Easton Are Doing.

Presiding Elder Corkran, of the Easton district, writes to the Peninsula Methodist his impressions of his last visitation. He says: "Saturday night I am in Easton. Our church here is in splendid condition in every department. The treasurer said he had never known it to be in as good financial state, and the Love Feast Sunday morning indicated a high tone of spirituality."

The Young Friends' Association has arranged for a series of meetings for the winter. The first will be on next Monday evening at the Friends' Meeting House, and besides readings, discussions and a paper, the question "What is Soul?" will be dealt with from the individual standpoint of the members.

The Pastor of the Baptist Church in Easton will begin a series of meetings to-morrow night. Dr. O. F. Gregory, of Baltimore, will preach during the week.

IN BAD HEALTH.

Dr. Avery reported as about to resign the Presding Eldership.

Rumors are current that Rev. Dr. W. E. Avery, presiding elder of Salisbury district, Wilmington Conference will resign on account of ill health. Dr. Avery was appointed at the session of conference which met in Chestertown last March, and since that time has suffered from nervous prostration. It is understood that the name of Rev. C. S. Baker, of Fairmount, will be presented for the vacancy. Mr. Baker was one of the prominent candidates for the position before the late conference. The name of Rev. C. W. Prettyman, pastor of Asbury Church, Salisbury, is also mentioned in connection with the vacancy.

Ho for December 8th!

The time is not far off when those delightful entertainers, the Smith Sisters Sextette, will appear in Easton, and the people should give them a crowded house, for they deserve the most liberal patronage, as they are equal to any entertainment on the stage. Then, too, their coming here is the enterprising work of two of Easton's well-known gentlemen, Mr. Will K. Norris and Dr. T. A. Councell, and who are anxious, from an artistic view as well as monetary, to have them receive a most liberal patronage. Remember, seats will be on sale at Councell's drug store, and the prices are reasonable, though the Sextette command large prices for their entertainments.

Still Another Improvement.

Another improvement has come to town, and Mr. Charles E. Nicols, the courteous and energetic agent of the U. S. Express Co., is at the bottom of it. Under his progressive management the business of the company has so increased in Easton that a large double wagon, such as are now used in New York, and two fine white horses have been added to the express outfit for Easton and creates quite a stir when driven through the streets of our town, which is certainly and rapidly on the advance toward putting on city airs.

Maryland Again Goes Republican.

Safe Majority in Both Branches of the Assembly, And Gorman's Overthrow Accomplished.

Talbot Goes Democratic with the Exception of the Legislative Ticket, which is Republican.--Democratic Majorities Small. Goldsborough is Elected Comptroller.

THE battle has been fought, and the successful are receiving the congratulations of their friends and thinking how wisely the voters exercised the great privilege of the American freeman, while the vanquished muse sadly over their inability to impress their eminent fitness upon the thick-headed men that never could be made to see anything.

The election in Talbot county passed off quietly, there being no disturbance worthy of note in any section. A crowd of democrats gathered at the office of the silver-plated organ that night and shouted vigorously as the returns rolled in. They thought they had everything in sight. On Wednesday their nominees were kept busy shaking hands.

The "unterrified" lengthened their faces, however, as later reports came in. Rumors of the Democratic registative vote at Tunis Mills having been over-rated spread rapidly, and a report was also circulated that eighteen votes on Tilghman's Island were irregular and liable to be thrown out. They were Democratic ballots with a different name on each ballot for Surveyor. The Republican judges claimed that the ballots bore distinguishing marks and were therefore illegal, the voters evidently being bought and adopting this way of satisfying their buyers that they had "delivered the goods." One judge, after carefully examining the law, decided that the act was not within the legal prohibition, and therefore he signed the returns. The two Democratic judges took the same view, and this settled the matter, as three will be sufficient to decide any disputed point.

There was much excitement Thursday when the return judges assembled to make their reports, and a number of persons gathered in the court room, where the returns were made as given below. It will be seen that the Republicans elect the Senator and Delegates, the Democrats winning the other "plums." This is only the fourth time that Talbot has divided her county ticket in thirty years, the previous years being 1873, 1881 and 1887.

The vote cast was the largest ever polled in Talbot, exceeding by 100 the extraordinary vote of last year.

In the Second Judicial Circuit, comprising Talbot, Caroline, Queen Anne's, Kent and Cecil, the Democrats elect James Alfred Pearce as Chief and William R. Martin and Frederick Stump as Associate Judges. Pearce's majority over Russum is 1227, Martin's over Mullikin, 1263, Stump's over Haines, 1309. In the Fifth Circuit, Anne Arundel, Carroll and Howard, Judge I. Thomas Jones, Democrat, was re-elected without opposition. He and Judge Stump are the only members of the Bench elected in 1867. In the Sixth, Frederick and Montgomery, John C. Motter, Republican, was elected by nearly 1000. The Seventh, or Southern Maryland, Circuit, re-elected Judge J. Parran Crane, and Judge George C. Merrick, who was appointed by Governor Lowndes to succeed John B. Brooke, retired for over age, were successful by large majorities.

Maryland has gone Republican for the fourth consecutive time. Phillips Lee Goldsborough defeats Thomas A. Smith for Comptroller of the Treasury by about 9,000, and General Allen Rutherford is elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals over the present incumbent, J. Frank Ford, by about 7,600. The Republicans carry the counties of Allegany, Calvert, Charles, Frederick, Garrett, Somerset and St. Mary's.

Baltimore goes Republican by a heavy majority for the whole ticket. Malster defeats Williams by a much larger majority for Mayor than was anticipated, and the City Council remains largely Republican, the First Branch by 15 to 7, the Second by 9 to 2.

The State Government is now entirely Republican, and the Senator to be elected next winter may hold the balance of power.

The proposed constitutional amendment was defeated by a very large majority, few persons voting upon the question at all, or probably knowing anything about it.

In Pennsylvania the Republicans had about 130,000 plurality on a light vote. There was some disaffection, and the Prohibition nominee, who bore the misfit name of Dr. Swallow, carried several counties and received about 125,000 votes.

In Virginia the Democrats carried their State ticket by about 60,000, all the Senate and about 95 out of 100 members of the Assembly. A very light vote was polled. "The Dutch have taken Holland" again.

Judge Alton B. Parker (Dem.) is elected in New York, and Van Wyck, Tammany, carries the new city of Greater New York. The Legislature is Republican on joint ballot.

Elections for part of the Legislature were held in New Jersey. The Republicans retain control of both Houses.

Municipal elections were held in Rhode Island, with mixed results.

Governor Wolcott (Rep.) is re-elected in Massachusetts by 88,000 plurality, the largest ever cast prior to the tidal wave of 1894. The Prohibition and Gold Democratic votes were so small that their nominees will be excluded from the official ballot next year.

Ohio went Republican by nearly 30,000 majority. The Legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Hanna, is Republican on joint ballot. There will be a sharp contest for the position between the present incumbent and Governor Bushnell.

The silver wing of the Democracy carried Kentucky by 20,000 plurality, and the Legislature is Democratic.

Iowa remains true to her Republican moorings, the majority on the State ticket exceeding 30,000, and the Legislature is largely Republican.

The few city and county elections held in Kansas showed heavy Republican gains. The 16-to-1 delusion there is dangerously ill with a malady known as "dollar wheat."

Nebraska was swept by the fusionists by an increased majority.

South Dakota, which was full of Popocracy last year, returned to her first love on Tuesday in her judicial elections, exceeding the expectations of the most sanguine Republicans.

Mayor Maybury (Dem.) was re-elected in Detroit, Mich.

Municipal elections were held in Utah. The Citizens' Ticket won in Salt Lake City, while the Republicans were generally successful in Ogden.

The complexion of the Maryland Senate will be Republican by a majority of 18. Following are the members, the first twelve being hold-overs and the last 14 are newly elected.

Anne Arundel, J. Wirt Randall, R.; Baltimore City, 1, Gustavus A. Dobler, R.; Baltimore city, 3, Frank S. Strobridge, R.; Baltimore County, D. Hopper Emory, R.; Carroll, Joshua W. Hering, D.; Frederick, Frank C. Norwood, R.; Howard, George D. Day, R.; Kent, Charles T. Westcott, R.; Queen Anne's, Woodland P. Finley, D.; Somerset, A. Lincoln Dryden, R.; Washington, Norman B. Scott, Jr., R.; Wicomico, Elihu E. Jackson, D.; Allegany, David E. Dick, R.; Baltimore City, Louis Putzel, R., Calvert, Charles L. Marsh, R., Caroline, Robert M. Messick, R.; Cecil, Austin L. Crothers, D.; Charles, George T. C Gray, R.; Dorchestor, Wm. F. Applegarth, D.; Garrett, Robert A. Ravenscroft, R.; Harford, Stevenson A. Williams, R.; Montgomery, Wm. Viers Bouic, Jr., D.; Prince George's, Wm. B. Clagett, D.; St. Mary's, Washington Wilkinson, R.; Talbot, Henry Clay Dodson R; Worcester, John Walter Smith, D.; Senate, Republicans, 18.; Democrats, 8.

In the House of Delegates the majority will be republican, thus positively and finally defeating the aspirations of Gorman to re-election in the United States Senate.—Following are the number of members of the House of Delegates:

Allegany county, 5 republicans; Anne Arundel county, 4 democrats; Baltimore City, 18 republicans; Baltimore county, 6 democrats; Calvert county, 2 republicans; Caroline county, 1 republican and 1 democrat; Carroll county 3 democrats and 1 republican; Cecil county, 3 democrats; Charles county, 2 republicans; Dorchester county, 3 democrats; Frederick county, 5 republicans; Garrett county, 2 republicans; Harford county, 4 democrats; Howard county, 2 democrats; Kent county, 2 democrats; Montgomery county, 3 republicans; Prince George's Co., 2 dem. 1 rep.; Queen Anne's county, 3 democrats; Somerset county, 3 republicans; St. Mary's county, 2 republicans; Talbot county, 3 republicans; Washington county, 3 democrats and one republican; Wicomico county, 3 democrats; Worcester county, 3 democrats. Total, 49 republicans, 42 democrats. On joint ballot 67 republicans and 50 democrats.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST.

Visitors to Easton and Talbot—What Our People Are Doing.

Mrs. Charles H. Gibson has closed her Ratcliffe home, and will spend the winter South. She left last Tuesday for Lexington, Va., and will shortley continue to Louisville, Ky., where she will remain until Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Semple, after which she will go to California to spend the winter at the elegant home of her son on Mare Island.

Mrs. Dr. Barber entertained a small company to tea on Thursday evening. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Kemp, Mrs. M. A. Kemp, Mr. W. H. Kemp, Mr. Joseph Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson M. Tylor, of Easton, and Mr. Gaither, of Baltimore.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Alice M. Leaverton to Mr. Clinton McS. Henry, to take place on next Wednesday evening at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Leaverton, "Choptank," near Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. White returned from their bridal trip to New York and other cities on Monday evening. A number of friends were at their new home on Goldsborough street to receive them.

Miss Emma Green has returned to Baltimore after a sojourn of several weeks in Easton. She was the guest of Miss Josie P. Dawson.

Dr. Joseph S. Garrison, who has been quite ill for the past two or three weeks, is greatly improved at this writing.

Mrs. J. Locke Erwin, of Burlington, N. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie Taylor, of North Washington street.

Mrs. Harry B. Sheppard and Miss Clara Virginia Bartlett are visiting Miss Ella Atkinson, Ridgely.

Mrs. Hattie Hopkins and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Centreville, are visiting relatives in Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb J. Moore have closed their home at Bloomfield and gone to Baltimore.

Miss Dora Price is at home after visiting for several weeks in Queen Anne's.

Mr. S. Lee Tucker, of Baltimore, was in Easton this week.

OF EDUCATIONAL INTEREST.

Meeting of the Talbot County Teachers' Association.

The Talbot Teachers' Association met, for the first time since its reorganization for the year, at the Easton High school building on last Saturday. Prof. Addison E. Mullikin, principal of Trappe High School, is president of the association, and Miss Maggie P. Robinson is secretary. The attendance of teachers was very good.

Prof. Alexander Chaplain, the examiner of schools for the county, gave an interesting talk on psychology, discussing at length the mental processes in the study of mathematics. He also discussed the investigations of E. H. Russell, president of Worcester (Mass.) Normal School, as to the difference between algebra and geometry in their psychological results. Miss Josephine Collins conducted an open parliament on the subject of "School Government." Prof. Henry Emerson Adams, principal of St. Michaels High School, read a paper on the subject, "What Shall Be Done With Troublesome Pupils?" Prof. Thomas D. Burns, first assistant in St. Michaels High School, read a paper on "The Relations of Parents, Teachers and Children."

The discussions were interesting and profitable. Dr. Hardcastle, a member of the Board of School Commissioners, was an attehtive listener.

A Valuable Farm.

Mr. C. H. Sigman of Easton has lately purchased a farm in St. Mary's county Maryland, but came home to vote—he being a good Democrat.

With him as a specimen of what his newly purchased farm could do, he brought some corn, raised without fertilizer, measuring 12 inches in length and 9 inches in circumference. Mr. Sigman also grows tobacco, and the specimens he shows are excellent in texture, quality and flavor, while he raised 2100 lbs off of two and a quarter acres.

"The Glass of Fashion."

If there's one thing more interesting than another at Oehm's Acme Hall it is their Wall Paper Department.

Exclusive stores have been making such enormous profits on Wall Papers that people have become used to paying them and not feel the extragance.

That's the secret of Oehm's Wall Paper being so reasonable. That's why a 4 cent paper here is what you've been paying five and even ten cents for, while Oehm's line of finest papers make the dollars tumble off the usual prices.

Send for estimates and save just about half. Samples will be sent free to all who write for them.

OEHM'S ACME HALL, Baltimore.

The Clerks Office.

Mr. Wrightson the newly elected Clerk of the Circuit Court, it is said, will not make any change in his office. Mr. Henry Hollyday will continue as deputy clerk and Mr. William S. Wilson will be reappointed recording clerk. Both of these gentlemen are affable and efficent and are well acquanted with the routine of the office. Mr. Wrightson will assume charge as soon as the term of Clerk Bateman expires.
