nineteen or twenty years ago and further this deponent saith not.

Taken on the Survey this 11th day of Septr 1789. William his X mark Ingle

The deposition of Richardson Stansbury aged about sixty years being duly sworn deposeth and saith that he remembers a house standing at or near the place now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor where John Rimmer lived and occupied as a Smith Shop and that he does not know that Mr Jarvice Biddeson paid my rent for the land but that he always had it in possession until Mr Garretson had it and that he never knew of any Geelment Served on Jarvice Biddeson for this land that he never heard of any expressions relating to the land above mentioned at or before the time of Mr Jarvice Biddeson deceased and further this deponent saith not.

Taken on the Survey taken this 28th Septr 1789. Richard his mark Stansbury

The Deposition of Thomas Baily Esquire aged about fifty three years being duly sworn deposeth and saith that in the year seventeen hundred and eighty six or thereabouts this deponent was a commissioner on a land commission issued out of Baltimore County Court to Job Garretson on two tracts of land the one called Goosberry Neck and the other called Hazard he with the other of the commissioners was brought to the whitewash now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor at which tree several persons then proved to be a bounded tree of Sisters Hope and that if, and that if then appeared to be an old bounded tree, The plaintiff asked the Deponent if on the above commission he was not shewn another tree as a tree of Sisters Hope answer that he was shewn a stump of a tree but cannot tell whether it was a boundary of Sisters Hope but remembers that Job Garretson claimed the said stump as a boundary of Dundee and Jeremiah Biddeson said that Sisters Hope must come to the said tree of Dundee; this deponent then went to stump of a Spanish Oak now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor and deposed that John Garretson proved the said stump on the commission above recited but is not certain of what land, The Deponent then went to the place shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor, and deposed that John Garretson proved on the commission aforesaid, that at this place stood a bounded tree of Dundee as was shewed to him by Thomas Davis reference being had to his Deposition returned in the commission aforesaid will more fully appear and further this Deponent saith not.

Taken on the Survey this 29th Septr 1789. Thomas Bailey

The Deposition of Sarah Parks aged about thirty two or three years being duly sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that her father

John,

John Morgan at the place where now lives a certain Richard Ireland now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor and that she this deponent understood from her father and others that he the said John Morgan father to this deponent paid no consideration for the said place to Jarvice Biddeson father to the plaintiff in this cause and that it is about seventeen years ago since he this deponents father deceased who died at the place aforesaid this deponent being asked by the defendant if she knew what consideration her father paid for the place above mentioned answered a few years of Indian Corn asked by the Defendant if she knew or thought it was to the amount of twenty shillings answered she did not think it was the defendant asked if she thought it was to the amount of five shillings answered she did not think it was, The Defendant then asked the deponent if she did not hear during the time her father lived at the place aforesaid that the same place was claimed by some other person besides Jarvis Biddeson, she had heard it since but does not recollect that she did during the life of her father, for she was then young and did not give heed of such matters but thinks she has heard of some of the Grays claiming the same either before or since and further this deponent saith not.

Taken on the Survey this 11th Septr 1789. Sarah her mark Parks

The deposition of Henry Spinsham aged about sixty years being duly sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that by the conversation this deponent had with Mr Jarvice Biddeson upon his sending for this deponent to write his will that the said Biddeson had made a will formerly and that he sent for this deponent to write his intended last will and testament that the said Biddeson desired this deponent to write his will so as to leave an equal part of his lands to each of his two sons Daniel and Jeremiah that the part left to Jeremiah he the said Jarvice Biddeson did not know but it might be disputable and further this deponent saith not.

Taken on the Survey this 13th day of October 1789. Henry Spensham

The deposition of John Carter aged about thirty four years being duly sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that the tree now shewn by this deponent to the Sheriff and Surveyor was shewn by Jeremiah Biddeson the present plaintiff in this cause, to the said deponent as a tree of Sisters Hope that this Deponent shews to the Sheriff and Surveyor a place where the deponent and Joseph Longdon framed the frame of the plaintiffs pen house and the reason that the plaintiff framed his house there because he was determined in his mind where to set it that Jeremiah Biddeson the present,