"MORE COPY!"

NIXON WATERMAN IN L. A. W. BULLETIN.

The editor sat in his weary chair,
His fingers knit in his unkempt hair,
While on his nervous ear there fell
Full oft the printers' frightful yell—
"More copy!"

He went 'way out in the country where
He dreamed he'd never hear of care
But he found it had him on the list,
For the bees, breeze and trees all hissed—
"More copy!"

He went to church but he could'nt sleep,
For the speaker's voice was harsh and deep;
With a fog horn's strength it seemed to shout,—
And the choir and organ to thunder out—
"More copy!"

He wandered off to a lonely spot
By the wet, sad sea, and he questioned, "What
Are the wild waves saying?" when with a roar
They shrieked till they nearly split the shore—
"More copy!"

Then he sat him down and he wrote this verse,
And he sighed that he couldn't write it worse,
But there's never a printer since that day
With the nerve to go to him and say—
"More copy!"

Splendid Picture of the Cruiser Philadelphia to Be Given Away Free.

The publishers of the great Philadelphia Sunday Press announce that with every copy of next Sunday's Press (April 3), will be given free a fine picture of the Cruiser Philadelphia. This picture will be a companion to the picture of the Battleship Maine, which was recently given away by "The Sunday Press" and will be an appeal to patriotism. It will be larger than the Maine picture, printed in eleven colors, and will be well worth framing. Next Sunday's Press will be 50 pages with an eight page comic section in colors, so that altogether the offer is remarkable. The publishers announce that the supply of Philadelphia pictures is limited, so that it is well for everybody to place their orders at once.

Wewill make an extra display of Silks as well as Millinery to-day. For this date we will make special cash discounts on all purchases. A rare chance to get more than your dollar is worth.

"EAST LYNNE."

A Prime Favorite at the Academy of Music Next Week.

One of the most noteworthy productions of the season at the Baltimore Academy of Music will be the presentation there, week beginning Monday, April 4th, of "East Lynne" with a star cast. It is equal in importance to the famous cast of "The Rivals," which appeared at the same house two years ago. Messrs. Nixon and Zimmerman, in keeping with their high standard, secured this great combination for Baltimore, where it was not originally booked to appear until next season.

"East Lynne" as done by the McKee Rankin Company is a very much freshened up play. An entirely new first act has been written and some comedy scenes have been introduced in the succeeding acts to relieve their intense seriousness. Mr. McKeeRankin has made the changes and revisions himself, has staged it and superintended the rehearsals. The cast engaged could not be improved upon. Miss Nance O'Neil is one of the most natural blonde beauties with a perfect Greek contour so rarely met with. Her head rises from her neck in a slender, tempting straightness and her eyes are long and full, pencilled above with straight eyebrows exactly the color of her lovely hair. She has a perfect figure and her voice is very sweet and has much strength. Rose Eytinge is a great favorite and will be heartily welcome in the character comedy role of Cornelia. Mr. Lackaye should certainly give an original rendering of the handsome villain, Sir Francis Levison. Mr. Rankin in the rather ordinary part of Lord Mountsevern, Andrew Robson as the injured husband, Archibald Carlyle and H. A. Weaver as old Dill, leave nothing to be desired. Certainly "East Lynne" has never been honored with such a cast in many years.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Dr. Councell's Pharmacy and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

A Sure Thing for You.

A transaction in which you cannot lose is a sure thing. Biliousness, sick headache, furred tongue, fever, piles and a thousand other ills are caused by constipation and sluggish liver. Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the wonderful new liver stimulant and intestinal tonic, are by all druggists guaranteed to cure or money refunded. C. C. C. are a sure thing. Try a box to day; 10c., 25c., 50c. Sample and booklet free. All druggists. tf
