P. B. K. James Dorsey against
J. T. Ill. Edward Reynolds

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the fourth day of September anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty nine the plaintiff by Philip Barton Key his attorney sued out of our general Court the state of Marylands writ of Capias ad respondendum directed to the sheriff of Calvert County in the words and figures following to wit.

The State of Maryland &c. To the sheriff of Calvert County Greeting. We Command you that you take Edward Reynolds late of Calvert County Gentleman otherwise called Edward Reynolds of Calvert County if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safe keep so that you have his body before the judges of our general Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of October next to answer James Dorsey of a plea of Trespass upon the case and so forth. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire Chief judge of our said Court the 26th day of June anno domini 1789. Ino Gwinn Clk.

Issued the 4th day of September 1789 (P. B. K.)

And the aforesaid James Dorsey by his attorney aforesaid declared against the aforesaid Edward Reynolds in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit.

Western Shore, to wit: Edward Reynolds late of Calvert County Gentleman, otherwise called Edward Reynolds of Calvert County was attached to answer James Dorsey of a plea of trespass upon the case and so forth.

And whereupon the said James by Philip Barton Key his attorney complains, that whereas on the tenth day of July in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine at Calvert County, the said Edward was indebted to the said James in the sum of two hundred and sixty three pounds eighteen shillings and eight pence current money for the like sum before that time by the said Edward had and received to the use of the said James; and being so thereof indebted he the said Edward afterwards, to wit, the day and year aforesaid at the County aforesaid in Consideration thereof upon himself assumed, and to the said James promised that he would well and

Truly

Truly content and pay the sum of money aforesaid when afterwards he should be thereunto required. And whereas afterwards, to wit, the day and year aforesaid at the County aforesaid the said Edward was indebted to the said James in one other sum of two hundred and sixty three pounds eighteen shillings and eight pence current money for the like sum by him the said James laid out and expended and paid to and for the use of the said Edward at the special instance and request of the said Edward; and being so indebted he the said Edward afterwards, to wit, the day and year aforesaid at the County aforesaid, in consideration thereof, upon himself assumed and to the said James then and there promised that he would well and truly content and pay the same whenafterwards he should be thereunto required.

Nevertheless the said Edward his many promises and assumptions so as aforesaid made not regarding but intending subtilly to deceive and defraud the said James in that behalf, the aforesaid sums or any of them, or any part thereof hath not hitherto paid or satisfied, altho often thereto requested, to wit, the day and year aforesaid at the County aforesaid; but the same to content or pay hath altogether refused, and still doth refuse: wherefore the said James saith he is the worse and hath damage to the value of five hundred pounds current money: and therefore he brings suit, and so forth.
