WILSON M. TYLOR & BRO., Editors,

S. ELLIOTT SHANNAHAN, Local Reporter and Foreman

Easton, Maryland, July 2nd, 1898.

COL. J. C. MULLIKIN openly declares that he will do nothing to aid the candidacy of Congressman Barber this fall; and that the Republicans must go into the fight without the active support of the Colonel or his followers. While it is to be regretted that these differences exist yet it is not to be denied that they do exist, and since the Talbot Times under its present management has been outspoken against the course of Dr. Barber and made reference in uncomplimentary terms to the "treachery" at Annapolis last winter it becomes the duty of the GAZETTE to take a firm and consistent stand on the side of loyalty to the party which it represents.

It has been apparent for some years that an effort had been made by certain ones to get control of a republican paper in Talbot for the purpose of waging war within the the party; and like the see-saw, this effort has always been made by that element which considered itself at the lowest point. But, when some favors were extended and their clammorings appeased they have temporarily subsided from disturbing the equanimity of the party.

By the election of Dr. Barber to the Legislature and then to Congress, the wave of jealousy began to swell and continued to do so until the purchase of a democratic paper called The Talbot Times was the outcome. This paper is edited by an ex-postmaster of Trappe, who is also a member of the State Central Committee for Talbot county, but whose name was placed there by his friends more as the monkey used the cat than it was for his own personal worth or glory. It was readily seen that he could be used to checkmate the influence of Barber on the same committee and represent an unfriendly faction which failed in its efforts last fall to displace Barber when it tried to give him a black eye before the County Convention, knowing that he would be the most prominent candidate from the Shore for the Senatorship.

While this annoyed the laudable ambitions of the Doctor, they were easily combatted and at every offset during the past year the Barber men have proved their superiority in strength and sympathizers. But without opposition by Barber, the editor of the Times was allowed to be renamed tax collector for his district, and we do not think the Times would be an anti-Barber paper today were it entirely controlled by the editor.

Although published at Trappe, its editorial inspiration is from Easton, and that inspiration is controlled entirely by jealousy.

The GAZETTE has always been straight forward and outspoken and labors neither from fear of censure from those who oppose it nor from the hope of reward from those who favor it.

THE very hot weather of this week, together with the thought of the approaching Fourth and the summer outing has given politics a needed rest. It appears since the last issue of the GAZETTE that the ominous clouds of opposition to Barber, were only filled with wind and soon spent themselves without creating any havoc.

Do not weary in well doing, brother, Times, and don't tell all you know at one breath. That's what the calf does. And you know, dear, the calf is not a good criterion to follow. At least we suppose you know the calf; if you do not, it is like a "dove"—it sucks, but is slightly different in its expression and plumage. The calf will sing when you twist its tail, the dove will sing when another dove presents its bill. We have both calves and doves in politics, darling, the calves to raise the howl, and the doves to furnish the milk. Now trot along home to mammy and tell her you have been a good boy and know your lesson and perhaps she will give you a little blue pigeon next week instead of a "sucking dove."

SOME protest is being entered against being compelled to place Internal Revenue stamps upon checks given for the distribution of public money. The question will be raised, as some are already cancelling stamps under protest.

THE Talbot Times this week, automatically turns its guns of inquiry upon the GAZETTE. Perhaps it is looking for "treachery," as usual. It has a far searching orb and keen sense of smell for that delicacy.

THE new law went in force yesterday in the town of Easton requiring owners of vehicles for hire or traffic to take out license.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Harry Roberts, Easton, Md.

Fourth of July in Old Chapel.

Beneath the shady branches of the forest, the people of Talbot County and particularly those of Chapel District will celebrate the coming 4th of July in genuine old fashioned style.

A handsome and spacious platform has been erected in the woods near Baptiste Smith's road gate on the road leading from Easton to the Old Chapel. The grounds have been prepared for the reception of the people. Here everybody will be welcome, for it is in honor of our National Anniversary that these arrangements have been made. J. Frank Turner, Dr. Charles H. Rose and Geo. E. Haddaway are to speak upon the occasion, and that the American Eagle will feel proud enough to eat up bones and all of several Spaniards when these gentlemen have delivered their orations, goes without saying. The speaking will commence at 2 o'clock P. M. Refreshments and supper for the people and food for the horses will be provided for. A grand ball at night, and the day's programme will conclude with fireworks. Two bands of Music have been engaged. Come one, come all.

July 4th, 1898. For the accommodation of its patrons, the B. C. & A. Ry. Co., Railway Division, will place on sale the above date at all stations Ocean City to Claiborne inclusive, tickets between all local points good for the day only on all regular trains in both directions, at rate of one fare for the round trip.

65 cts. will buy enough good paint to give your Carriage a first class dressing, from

NEVIUS & FRAMPTON.

Summer Dress Fabrics Newly Cheap

PRUDENCE suggests no further delays. Money-losing is not pleasant work—and the owners of these goods will hope to be spared a further experience of this kind.

Our purchase was of beautiful

25c ORGANDIES TO SELL AT 16c
12½c DIMITIES TO SELL AT 8c

THE ORGANDIES are the filmy fabrics of Alsace-Lorraine—as yet the world's supply-point for the finest cotton weaves. The printings are American and exquisite—well on to a hundred designs and colorings being included. 25c Organdies at 16c.

THE DIMITIES are printed in stripes and plaids and figures on grounds of blue, of black and of white. Their dainty prettiness is too winsome to be resisted. 12½c grade at 8c.

10c PRINTED LAWNS AT 7c

It seems odd to sell such decidedly summery goods under value when we have all of the summer weather yet to come. But that simply doubles the attractiveness of these unusual offerings.

We took another

$12,000 Lot of Women's Shirt Waists

Last week we told of a shirt waist purchase in which eight carloads of shirt waists had come to us at a very decided saving in prices.

You liked them—took them away rapidly. We figured out your probable wants, and saw that our stock wouldn't reach. So another big purchase—equally economical.

There is almost no end of styles and colorings among the fabrics, but there is practically one style in the making—THE VERY LATEST. Interested? The waists are on sale at

50c, 75c, $1, $1.25 AND $1.50

New Linens ALMOST a year ago a German linen maker, famous for the towels he produced, came over the ocean to learn more clearly what the American people wanted. Of course he came to Wanamaker's, largely to win trade with the greatest distributors of linens. We gave him a handsome huck towel to model by—today the result is here. The model towel is selling at 45c. The new towels are twenty-five cents each and weigh more than the originals. Washed ready for use and beautifully finished; ends are hemstitched; all white, or with blue, red or yellow borders. Size 20x38 inches. The handsomest Huck Towels ever made to sell for a quarter.

NAPKINS—

More than ten thousand Napkins came in this lot that finds first showing in the Linen Store now. They are splendidly made of excellent flax—perfectly finished; probably a dozen patterns in all. Three sizes:

20x20 inches, $1.75 a dozen
22x22 inches, $2.25 a dozen
24x24 inches, $2.75 a dozen

White Bed Spreads VERY suggestive of wedding days are many of these exquisite White Quilts. The rich and elaborate patterns, the soft, elegant finish commend them at once to seekers for appropriate wedding presents.

This hint of prices—

At $4—Imported Marseilles Bed Spreads in a variety of handsome patterns.
At $2.50—Handsome Marseilles Bed Spreads, full size, splendid weight, excellent designs.
At $1.65—Genuine Marseilles Spreads in handsome effects; generous size.
At $1.25—Pretty Marseilles Spreads at the usual cost of crochet spreads. Perfect in quality and ready hemmed. A special lot, not likely to be had again at the price.
At $1—Crochet Bed Spreads in Marseilles patterns; full double-bed size.

The MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Company, of Springfield, Mass.

The following lelter from Mr. N. M. Tabor, the well known Colorado millionaire is well worth your consideration:

Denver, Col., January 28, 1890.

GENTLEMEN:

In reply to your favor of the 25th asking for my estimate of the value of life insurance, I beg to say that I carry a large line for two reasons:

First, No man is infallible. Some misfortune that he cannot ward off may take from him his accumulated fortune, whether it be large or small; and a policy, such as I have, would afford a competence for old age.

Second, I consider that one dollar of cash to an estate in event of death will usually save two dollars to the estate.

Yours truly,
N. M. TABER.
