THE PRISONERS AT ANNAPOLIS.

Making Themselves at Home and Buying Clothing in the "Ancient City."

Some of the Spanish prisoners at the Naval Academy at Annapolis are apparently in a happy frame of mind and seem to enjoy their environment. They are principally unmarried men, who have no ties at home which require their early return to Spain. On the other hand, those who have families are less contented. It is stated that a Spanish sailor, quartered on the Santee, was engaged more than six hours writing a letter to his family, stopping every few minutes to walk the deck and weep. Some of the officers take great interest in lawn tennis, others visiting the swimming tanks. One went driving, accompanied by a Redemptorist priest. One of the Spaniards purchased from an Annapolis merchant ten suits of clothes. They were not all for himself, but for those who were unable to leave the academy to procure them for themselves. The Admiral requires a very large suit to fit him, his waist measurement being about forty-three inches, his chest forty-four, and he requires a collar No. 17.

Admiral Cervera and others of the prisoners were out in town taking in the sights and purchasing supplies. The Admiral and his sons gave orders for a pair of hand-made shoes. Disappointment was expressed because some of the Spaniards were unable to find silk underwear in the city stores, to which they are accustomed. Among the Admiral's callers was Senor Castello, of the diplomatic corps, of Washington. It is understood the captains of the fleet will be permitted, like Admiral Cervera, to secure parole without signing their names, which Captain Eulate refused to do.

The Harvard is expected shortly with another batch of prisoners.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since shi birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. LAW, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by Harry Roberts. t7-30

Decision In Favor Of Caroline County In The Case Of Charles H. Whitby.

In the case of Caroline county against Charles H. Whitby, the court decided in favor of the county and mandamus was issued compelling Mr. Whitby to perform the duties of clerk to the county commissioners as well as those of treasurer of Caroline county, but at the same time directing that he shall be paid extra for assessing property for taxation. The suit had been docketed by agreement to obtain a judicial construction of the law. The decision will necessitate Mr. Whitby's acting as clerk as well as treasurer. It was expected the case would be argued at Easton, but was heard by the court in Centerville. The counsel were A. G. Towers, for Caroline county, and Henry Lewis, for Whitby, and the case was tried before Judges Pearce, Stump and Martin.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Harry Roberts.
