Issued 5. September 1787.

W Cooke T Jenings

And the said Daniel Dulany administrator aforesaid by William Cooke and Thomas Jenings his attornies aforesaid declared against the aforesaid Charles Ridgely in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit.

Maryland Baltimore County to wit Charles Ridgely late of Baltimore County was summoned to answer unto Daniel Dulany administrator with the will annexed of all and singular the goods and Chattels Rights and Credits which were of Thomas Bladen deceased of a plea that he render unto him the sum of one hundred and ninety six pounds Sterling money of the value of three hundred and twenty six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence Current money which from him he unjustly detains &c.

And whereupon the said Daniel by Thomas Jenings his attorney saith that whereas the aforesaid Charles on the twenty ninth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy five at Baltimore County aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the said Thomas Bladen in his life time in the aforesaid sum of one hundred and ninety six pounds Sterling money to be paid unto the said Thomas Bladen when afterwards he should be thereunto required.

And the said Daniel Dulany in fact saith that the said sum of one hundred and ninety six pounds Sterling money was at the time of making the writing obligatory aforesaid and always since hath been and now is of the value of three hundred and twenty six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence Current money to wit at Baltimore County aforesaid. Nevertheless the aforesaid Charles the aforesaid sum of one hundred and ninety six pounds Sterling or the value thereof to him the said Thomas Bladen in his life time or to the said Daniel after the death of the said Thomas Bladen in his life time or to the said Daniel after the death of the said Thomas Bladen (to which said Daniel the administration with the will annexed of all and singular the goods and Chattels Rights and Credits which were of the said Thomas Bladen at the time of his death was by William Buchanan Register of wills for the County aforesaid on the twentieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven at the County aforesaid after the death of him the said Thomas Bladen in due form of law committed although often required, hath not rendered or paid but
