DUMONT'S MINSTRELS

At Eleventh Street Opera House, Philadelphia, Next Saturday.

Our readers will be delighted to know that the above fun-makers will be at home in the family resort to dispense the usual mirth, comedy, melody and burlesques upon current events on Saturday afternoon and night, September 10. The matinee, Saturday, September 10, is selected for the children who have thronged the afternooon performances throughout last season and the management concluded to entertain their little friends first, and the opening is therefore dedicated to them. The usual matinees, Wednesday and Saturday, will be continued during the season at 25 cents, making this the cheapest and grandest entertainment in the city at popular prices.

Last season's company was voted the best seen upon the stage of this popular place of amusement, but this season it will be eclipsed by the talented comedians and singers enrolled for the present season. This house has always been noted for its great burlesques, which have been written by its manager, Mr. Frank Dumont, for the past twenty years, and who has prepared a funny satire called "The Return of Wanamaker's Regiment: or, What They Missed in Cuba;" and there is also a timely scenic burlesque called "Life in the Phillipine Islands," and a local affair satirizing the cake walks at Atlantic City.

Hughey Dougherty will resume his place among the fun-makers and will have lots to tell about the late war, the peace terms and the future of our colonies, also a review of the fads and follies of the present day at the seashore and mountain resorts. After an absence of five years Larry Dooley returns from London (Eng.) and will again make the Eleventh Street Opera House ring with his voice and funny mannerisms. James Ten Brooke is a new-comer, but a great comedian and dancer. The team of Dooley and Ten Brooke will become great favorites with minstrel patrons. Murphy and Gibson and Harry C. Shunk will amuse as formerly and are prepared with a budget of good and timely things. J. M. Woods, the phenomenal tenor, will again be heard. Jas. McCool, the Irish vocalist, has been re-engaged. J. F. Hortiz, the sweet warbler, will be seen and heard in new sketches. J. M. Kane, the celebrated tenor, has a quantity of new ballads. J. M. Dempsey, Edwin Goldrick, Joseph Perry, Richard P. Lilly, the great pianist; John A. Armstrong, Clifton Wood, C. V. Fischer, Frank Sattoria, Gus Benedict, Charles Simpkins, J. Thompson, Frank Dument, G. W. Barber and George S. Hetzell, making the grandest aggregation of minstrel stars in the world. Everything will be done to eclipse the great triumphs of the past, as the motto of Dumont's Minstrels is "Excelsior."

A CRITICAL TIME.

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. BUTLER, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by HARRY ROBERTS.

Watching Their Watches.

When Gen. Shafter had completed the investment of Santiago, word went along the five-mile line of battle, "The attack on the intrenchments will begin at 4.15." At 4.15 every American soldier's hand went to his American watch, and every American patriot said, "Now!" History tells the result.

A good watch is needful in war as in peace. "Pretty near the right time," will not do in these stirring times. Get one of my American Watches and go by it.
