Anno domini seventeen hundred and ninety comes again as well the said Thomas Harwood the third by his attorney aforesaid as the said Charles Williamson by his attorney aforesaid.

And the said Charles Williamson by his attorney aforesaid as before defends the force and injury when andsoforth and prays an hearing of the bill obligatory aforesaid and it is read to him which being read and heard the said Charles says that the aforesaid Thomas Harwood for the use of James Jaffray his action aforesaid thereof against him to have or maintain ought not because he says that he doth not owe to the aforesaid Thomas Harwood for the use of James Jaffray the aforesaid sum of seventeen thousand pounds of merchantable tobacco or any part thereof in manner and form as the aforesaid Thomas Harwood use of James Jaffray) above against him hath declared, and this he is ready to verify wherefore he prays Judgment if the aforesaid Thomas Harwood for the use of James Jaffray his action aforesaid thereof against him to have ought andsoforth.

And the said Thomas Harwood saith that he by any thing by the said Charles Williamson above in pleading alledged from having and maintaining his action aforesaid against him ought not to be precluded because he says that the said Charles Williamson does owe to him the said Thomas Harwood for the use of James Jaffray the aforesaid sum of seventeen thousand pounds of merchantable tobacco and every part thereof with the interest thereon in such manner and form as the said Charles Williamson above by pleading hath alledged and of this he puts himself upon the Country and the said Charles Williamson in like manner andsoforth.

Whereupon this cause standing ready for Trial Command was given to the sheriff of Ann Arundel County, that he cause to come before the Judges of our General Court hereon the second tuesday of October next twelve &c by whom &c and who neither &c. to recognize &c because as well &c the same day is given to the said parties then and there &c.

And now here at this day to wit the said second tuesday of October being the twelfth day of the same month Anno Domini Domini seventeen hundred and ninety comes again as well the aforesaid Thomas Harwood the third by his attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid Charles Williamson by his attorney aforesaid but our said sheriff hath not sent his writ.

Nevertheless the aforesaid Charles Williamson by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid Thomas Harwood the third so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the aforesaid Thomas Harwood the third the aforesaid sum of seventeen thousand pounds of merchantable Tobacco at or above Magruders warehouse on patuxent River with Interest thereon from the Eighteenth day of August seventeen hundred and eighty six in manner and form aforesaid so as the aforesaid Thomas Harwood the third above against him hath declared.

Therefore it is considered by the Judges here that the aforesaid Thomas Harwood the third recover against the said Charles Williamson as well the sum of seventeen thousand pounds of merchantable tobacco at or above Magruders warehouse on patuxent river with Interest thereon from the eighteenth day of August seventeen hundred and Eighty six his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed as also the sum of six hundred and twenty six pounds of tobacco by the Court here unto the said Thomas Harwood the third on his assent adjudged as well for his damages sustained by reason of the detention of that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and Expended and the said Defendant in Mercy &c.

Memorandum. The plaintiff agrees to stay execution until the first day of January next.
