Do you properly realize that all classes of work known to the Printer's Art is done right here in your midst at prices that are current and never excessive. What we assert is easily proved, if you doubt it, that for elegant printing our machinery and other facilities equal that of any office in the city—not speaking of capacity but quality. Our office is equal to any on the peninsula, our type assortments are large, our labor skilled and our machinery costly and perfect. It requires fine machinery to do fine work, and our office is equipped with more fine presses than any country printing office in the State. We make a specialty of Book Work and have printed books for Easton and Baltimore Houses this year.
