No Time for Trifles.

We teach the children Danish,
Trigonometry and Spanish;
Fill their heads with old time notions.
And the secrets of the oceans,
And the cuneiform inscriptions
From the land of the Egyptians;
Teach the date of every battle,
And the habits of the cattle,
With the date of every crowning;
Read the poetry of Browning,
Make them show a preference
For each musty branch of science;
Tell the acreage of Sweden;
And the serpent's wiles in Eden;
And the other things we teach 'em
Make a mountain so immense
That we've not a moment left
To teach them common sense.

Notes of the Churches in Our Town and County.

A new marble altar in SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Easton, in memory of the late Howes Goldsborough and wife, was consecrated last Sunday by Bishop A. A. Curtis, who celebrated pontifical high mass and preached to a large congregation. The evening sermon was delivered by Very Rev. J. A. Lyons, vicar-general of the Diocese of Wilmington. The music for mass and vespers was furnished by a choir of picked voices from Wilmington.

Dedicatory services will begin in the Brethren Church at Ridgely, Coroline Co. Md., Sept. 27 at 7:30 p. m., and continue every night for two weeks. The church will be dedicated to the Lord Oct. 9th. Services to be conducted by Elder I. D. Bowman of Philadelphia.

The Rev. Dr. Doyle of New York City will be the guest of Father Temple at the rectory next week, and will preach every evening at 7:30 in the Church of SS. Peter and Paul Dr. Doyle is a member of the Paulist Fathers, a society devoted to Missionary work. He is editor of the Catholic World, and is known as one of the most eloquent speakers in the country. He is also a great temperance lecturer. Dr. Doyle's series of sermons promises to be most interesting and instructive. He will sing high mass Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The regular choir of the church will be assisted both morning and night by Misses Elizabeth Harmey and May McNulty, of Wilmington. The public will be welcomed at these services.

The Epworth League of the M. E. Church gave another pleasant social entertainment Thursday evening in the lecture room of the church. The Avon Quartette, Bowan's Orchestra. Miss grace Whalen of Baltimore and Miss Nettie Cannon of Seaford, Del., assisted in making the evening enjoyable Refreshments were served.

The October "McClure's."

The editors of McClure's Magazine have secured for the October number a "human document" of the recent war of the highest interest and value It is a diary kept by the British Consul at Santiago de Cuba from the day before the arrival of Cervera's fleet until the day after the American army took possession of the city. Mr. Ramsden, the author, had been British Consul at Santiago for nearly forty years. During the siege he was the special guardian and adviser of the panic-stricken foreign residents, and was in close confidential communication with the Spanish authorities, civil and military. Under the great labors and hardships of his position he finally fell ill, and, soon after the surrender, died.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. 'Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for several years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were underminded and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's new Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. 'Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby N. C. Trial bottles free at Dr. Councell's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

A CRITICAL TIME.

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. BUTLER, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by HARRY ROBERTS.

F. A. SHANNAHAN,

The MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Company, of Springfield, Mass.

The following lelter from Mr. N. M. Tabor, the well known Colorado millionaire is well worth your consideration:

Denver, Col., January 28, 1890.

GENTLEMEN:

In reply to your favor of the 25th asking for my estimate of the value of life insurance, I beg to say that I carry a large line for two reasons:

First, No man is infallible. Some misfortune that he cannot ward off may take from him his accumulated fortune, whether it be large or small; and a policy, such as I have, would afford a competence for old age.

Second, I consider that one dollar of cash to an estate in event of death will usually save two dollars to the estate.

Yours truly,
N. M. TABER.
