Ann Arundel County to wit May 13th 1779 Came Thomas Snowden Exor of Elizabeth Orme late of Ann Arundel County deceased and (made made Oath that this is a true and perfect Inventory of the goods and chattels of the deceased consisting of one third part of Richard Snowdens Estate being the sum of £22.0.7½ and the further sum of £375.18.3½, since received by the deceased from her fathers Thomas Rutlands Estate in divers Legacies of Negroes & other chattles, That no other or further part of the deceased's Estate hath come to his hands, also that he knows of no concealment of any part of the said Estate and that if he hereafter he should discover any concealment he will acquaint the Orphans Court with it that it may be enquired into

A True Copy / Jno. Gassaway Reg.r Wills for aa Coty

Mrs Orme's Daughter has since intermarried with Mr John Chew Thomas, and Mr Snowden thinks that in virtue of the Marriage agreement aforesaid Mr Thomas and his wife are entitled to the Seperate property of the mother at least - and that no part of it ought to be applied in the discharge of the debts of the said Ebenezer Edm.d Orme, and altho the Marriage Articles are for securing to Mrs Orme a much larger sum, than the amount of the Inventory, yet neither Mr Thomas nor his wife claim any thing further than the Mother's seperate property if they are secured in the right & possession of that

It is contended by the Plaintiff that the Marriage Contract being without the Intervention of a third person is extinguished by the subsequent marriage between the parties, and that the personal Estate that belonged to Mrs Orme is subject to the payment of the Plaintiffs debt contracted by Ebenezer Edmonson Orme before his intermarriage, notwithstanding the Marriage Articles herein mentioned, and that Mr Snowden as Orme's administrator is compellable to pay it without any regard to the Marriage Contract.

The Question submitted to the Court is, whether this Marriage agreement does not entitle Mr Thomas in right of his wife to the Seperate Estate of the mother and justify Mr Snowden in applying it for his benefit. If the Court should be of Opinion that Mr Thomas is so entitled, then Judgmt when a Sets of the Estate of Ebenezer Edmonson Orme, is to be entered in the present action But should the Court be of Opinion, that the Marriage agreement is of no avail in this case, then Judgment is to be entered for the Plaintiff Generally.
