was a good dwelling house on the premisses and Garden all in good order and that this Deponant does not know that the Mill was Stoped going while she lived there, and further saith not

Eliz^a Payne

Taken on the premmeses in the presence of the Sheriff this 23^d Jany 1783. Present Wm McLaughlin Shff.

The Deposition of Jonathan Hanson aged about twenty three years being duly sworn upon the Holy Evangelist of almighty God deposeth and saith that on or about the year of our Lord seventeen hundred & thirty three, that this deponent was present at the Execution of a writ of Ad quodammum for this deponant and George Walker and that the Place shewn to the Sheriff & Surveyor is near the place of beginning of the said writ of Ad quodammum. And further this Deponant saith that he was present at the running of the aforesaid writ of Ad quodammum and that the place shewn to the Sheriff & Surveyor is the end of the first line of said writ (or near the end) And further this Deponant saith that he well remembers that the place of beginning was on the East side of a small branch shewn to the Sheriff & Surveyor, but that the course of the said branch at the mouth is considerable altered and runs further to the Eastward but has not altered so as to run at this time to the Eastward of the aforesaid place of beginning. And further this deponant deposeth and saith that the place shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor or somewhere here or hereabouts was the next lines that was run but does not remember whether it was one or two courses. And further that all the Courses up to the Dam ran all to the West side of the mill race but that he did not cross the dam and this Deponant further saith that he was afterwards informed but does not know by whom that Jones the Surveyor in plotting the Ground found there was too much included on the write side of the race and left out one or two acres of what was included in the lines but does not know the above from his own knowledge.

The Deposition of John Moale aged fifty one years or upwards deposeth and saith that he was a jurryman on a writ of Ad quodammum executed for Edward Fell, upwards of twenty years ago & that the then Surveyor began to lay it down at the stumps mentioned by Richd Carter in his Deposition or not far distant from it; This Deponant further saith that he recollects, recollects a Beech standing between the said Stumps and the road which leads from the lower Mill to the Church Mill formerly known by the name of the old County road, and further saith not.

John Moale.

Test Wm McLaughlin Shff. 23^d Septr 1783.

The Deposition of Arrenah Kennedy aged upwards of fifty years being duly sworn deposeth and saith that she remembers Mr and Mrs Pane living at the dwelling house at the Lower mill and that the Mill was going at the time Mr Pane lived at said place to the best of her knowledge and that she does not know or ever heard that the mill ever stopt except when it stopt for repairs. that two Sons of Edward Fotrell lived with Mr and Mrs Pane, at the time that they lived at the Mill aforesaid, that a Daughter of Edward Fotrell lived with Mrs Ridgely wife of Charles Ridgely deceased, and that she remembers that the said Daughter was sent for to Ireland by her Grandmother and that Mrs Chenies went in Company with her to take shipping either at New Castle or Philadelphia in order to Embark for Ireland that she understood that a certain John Flannagan came in from Ireland with a power to take care of the Estate of Edward Fotrell for the use of his Daughter above mentioned at that time in Ireland and that the said Flannagan was in possession of the meadow marked Great meadow, on the plat That before Flannagan came in from Ireland Captn Charles Ridgely had the care of the said Meadow for the Daughter of Edward Fotrell aforesaid and upon Flannagans arrival from Ireland the said Ridgely gave up the said meadow into the possession of said Flannagan and that he was in possession untill the late war commenced, and further this Deponent saith not

Arreanah Kennedy

Taken on the Survey the 22^d March 1787.

The Deposition of Jacob Brown aged about forty three years being duly Sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that about thirty three years ago he remembers the Lower Mill and that it was then called Nicholasons mill and that he never knew of the said mill stopping from Grinding from that time to this except for want of work or necessary repairs and this Deponent saith that he lived at the said Mill about two years and that it is about thirty years ago since he lived at said mill, and that he always lived in Baltimore from the time he left the mill except about a year and three months he lived at Anapolis and Lancaster, that he remembers the fence now,