seventeen Hundred and comes again as well the aforesaid James Smith by his Attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmut by his Attorney aforesaid. And the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmutt by Baker Johnson his Attorney aforesaid as before defends the force and Injury when and so forth and craves oyer of the Bill obligatory aforesaid and the condition thereof and it is read to him which being read and heard the said Lindsey saith that he said James his action thereupon against him to have or maintain ought not because he says that he the said Lindsey paid to the said James the sum of Eighty Eight pounds thirteen Shillings and three pence current money in the said bill obligatory mentioned according to the force form and effect of the said bill obligatory and this he is ready to verify wherefore he prayeth Judgment if the said James his action thereupon against him to have or maintain ought and so forth.

And the aforesaid James Smith saith that he by any thing by the said Lindsey Delashmutt above by pleading alledged from having and maintaining his action aforesaid against him to be precluded ought not because he says that the said Lindsey Delashmut did not pay to him the said James the sum of Eighty Eight pounds thirteen Shillings and three pence Current money in the said Bill obligatory mentioned according to the force form and effect of the said Bill Obligatory in such manner and form as the said Lindsey Delashmut above by pleading hath alledged and of this he prays may be inquired of by the Country and the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmut in like manner and so forth.

Whereupon this cause standing ready for trial Command is given to the Sheriff of Ann Arundel County that he cause to come before the Judges of our General Court here on the second of May next twelve &c by whom &c and who neither &c to Recognize &c because as well &c the same day is given to the said parties then and there &c

And now here at this day to wit the said second of May being the tenth day of the same month Anno Domini Seventeen Hundred and ninety one comes again as well the aforesaid James Smith by William Cooke his Attorney as the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmutt by Baker Johnson his Attorney aforesaid. But our said Sheriff hath not sent his writ.

Nevertheless the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmutt by Baker Johnson his Attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid James Smith so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the aforesaid James Smith the aforesaid Eighty Eight pounds thirteen Shillings and three pence current money in manner and form aforesaid so as the aforesaid James Smith above against him hath declared. And the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmutt further says that he cannot deny but that the aforesaid James Smith hath sustained damages by reason of the detention of the debt aforesaid to the sum of Fifty pounds current money and no more. And because the aforesaid James smith does not gain say but the allegations aforesaid are true he prays Judgment of of the debt and Damages above by the aforesaid Lindsey Delashmutt acknowledged together with his Costs and charges to him to be adjudged and so forth.

Therefore it is considered by the Judges here that the aforesaid James Smith Recover against the said Lindsey Delashmutt as well the sums of Eighty Eight pounds thirteen Shillings and three pence Current money his Debt and fifty pounds current money of Maryland his damages sustained by reason of the detention of the Debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed as also the quantity of eight Hundred and Eighty seven pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto the said James Smith on his assent adjudged for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended and the said defendant in Mercy &c
