Frank Lyke could have satisfied to wit at Prince Georges county aforesaid. Nevertheless the aforesaid Mary the administratrix aforesaid the said sums of current money and tobacco so as aforesaid due and unpaid or either of them or any part thereof to the said Frank Lyke hath not paid or satisfied but the aforesaid sums of current money and tobacco in the Judgment aforesaid mentioned still remains due and unpaid to the said Frank Lyke and so the said William Cooke saith that the said Mary Belt the administratrix aforesaid hath not paid the debts of the said Tobias Belt the Intestate which he did owe at the time of his death so far forth as the goods chattels and credits which were of the said Tobias the Intestate at the time of his death will extend and the law will charge as she ought to have done but hath wasted and misapplied the same contrary to the form of the condition of the writing of the writing obligatory aforesaid, and this the said William Cooke is ready to verify and so forth, wherefore the said William Cooke who for the State in this instance prosecuteth prays Judgment for the said State for the debt aforesaid together with damages by occasion of the detention of that debt to be adjudged and so forth with this that the said William Cooke well verify that the said Mary Belt in the condition of the writing obligatory aforesaid mentioned and the said Mary Belt in the Record of the Judgment aforesaid mentioned is one and the same person and not others or Divers

And the aforesaid Robert Bradley by his attorney comes and saith that as to the aforesaid sums of two hundred and seventy one pounds ten shillings and ten pence current money and three hundred and forty four pounds of tobacco in the replication of the said State above mentioned he the said Robert Bradley saith that the said State the action aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought not because he saith that there is not any such Record of the debt damages and costs aforesaid as the said State by the Replication aforesaid above supposes and this he is ready to verify wherefore he prays Judgment if the said State the action aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought and so forth

And the aforesaid Robert Bradley by way of Rejoinder further saith that the said State the action aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought not because he saith that he has paid the aforesaid sums of two hundred and seventy one pounds ten shillings and ten pence current money and three hundred and forty four pounds of tobacco in the Replication of the said State mentioned, and of this he puts himself upon the country and so forth But for that the issues aforesaid in the plea aforesaid between the parties aforesaid are not joined, Thereupon with consent of parties by their attornies. It is ordered by the court here that this cause be continued until next Court

At which said next Court to wit the tenth day of May anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety one comes again as well the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid, as the said Robert Bradley Tyler by his attorney aforesaid

Nevertheless the aforesaid Robert Bradley Tyler by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averments above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said State of Maryland so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the said State of Maryland the aforesaid sum of two thousand pounds current money in manner and form aforesaid so as the aforesaid State of Maryland above against him hath declared

Therefore it is considered by the Judges here that the said State of Maryland recover against the said Robert Bradley Tyler as well the sum of two thousand pounds current money its debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed as also the sum of seven hundred and twenty five pounds of tobacco by the court here unto the said State of Maryland on its assent adjudged as well for its damages sustained by reason of the detention of that debt as for his costs and charges by the said State about this suit in that behalf laid out and expended and the said Defendant in mercy &c.

Memorandum The above Judgment to be released on payment of one hundred and thirty five pounds fifteen shillings current money with Interest from the eighth day of October seventeen hundred and eighty two and three hundred and forty four pounds of tobacco at twelve shillings and six pence per hundred and costs of suit, and execution to be staid until the first day of August next.
