last aforesaid was and ever since has been and now is of the value of three hundred and thirty three pounds six shillings and eight pence current money of Maryland at Baltimore county aforesaid. And whereas the said William was in his life time seised in his demesne as of fee of and in several Lands Tenements and premises with the Appurtenances in the said county hereafter particularly mentioned to be devised and being so seised thereof the said William after the twenty fifth day of March in the year of our Lord sixteen hundred and ninety two to wit the sixth day of August in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and sixty nine at Baltimore County aforesaid made his last Will & testament in writing, and by the said last Will and testament gave and bequeathed unto the said James and Cassandra and Assigns for ever, to wit unto Cassandra Bond the one hundred acres of land formerly given unto his the said William's Daughter Ruth Nicholson also all the part and parts and parcels of land belonging to him the said William in his life time that lay to the East side of or North East side of a Creek where was a bridge commonly known by the name of the High bridge which lead on the road leading from the house of him the said William to where Nathan Nicholson then dwelt to hold to her and her heirs and Assigns for ever. And also to his the said William's son James the then dwelling plantation on which he the said William dwelt together with the remainders of the Lands which belonged unto him and which he had before Willed or otherwise disposed of which same Lands mentioned and described in the Last Will and Testament of the aforesaid William are called or known by the name of Forberry or Forberries, weak, filial care and Midsummer Hills situation within the county aforesaid and by his said Testament gave and bequeathed to the said Cassandra and James and their Heirs and Assigns for ever. And afterwards to wit on the day of in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and sixty at Baltimore county aforesaid died seised of such his Estate of and in the said lands and Tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances so as aforesaid respectively devised after whose death and before the day of suing out the original writ of the said Charles to wit on the same day and year last mentioned at Baltimore County aforesaid the said Cassandra and James agreed to their said Legacies so as aforesaid respectively devised to them and were respectively seised of the lands and tenements so as aforesaid devised to them as aforesaid by vertue of the several devises as aforesaid. Yet Nevertheless the said William in his life time or the said Cassandra and James or either of them after the death of the said William although often required have not rendered nor hath either of them rendered the said two hundred pounds sterling or any penny thereof or any value thereof to the said Charles the younger after the death of the said Charles the elder but intirely refused to render the same to the said Charles the Elder in his life time and to the said Charles the younger after his death and the said Cassandra and James after the death of the said William have hitherto intirely refused to render the same to the said Charles the younger after the death of the said Charles the Elder and still do refuse and unjustly detain the same wherefore he says that he is injured and hath damage to the value of three hundred pounds current money and therefore he brings his suit and so forth. And the said Charles brings here into court as well the writing obligatory aforesaid which witnesseth the debt aforesaid in form aforesaid the date whereof is the same day and year first above written as also the said letters testamentary of the said Charles the Elder by which it sufficiently appears to the court here that the said Charles the younger is the Executor of the Testament and last Will of the said Charles the Elder and thereof has administration and so forth.

Francis Curtis for the plaintiff. pledges of the prosecution { John Doe and Richard Roe

And the aforesaid James Bond and Cassandra Bond by their attorney aforesaid defend the force and injury when and so forth and pray leave of the court here to imparle until the second Tuesday of May next and they have it, the same day is given to the plaintiff also

At which day to wit the second Tuesday of May being the ninth day of the same month in the year seventeen hundred and eighty six come here again the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid and the aforesaid James Bond and Cassandra Bond by their attorney aforesaid pray further leave of the court here to imparle untill the second Tuesday of October next and they have it the same day is given to the Plaintiff also.

At which day to wit the second Tuesday of October being the tenth day of the same Month in the year last aforesaid come here again the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid and the aforesaid James Bond and Cassandra Bond by their attorney aforesaid pray further leave of the court here to imparle until the second Tuesday of May next and they have it and the same day is given to the Plaintiff also.

At which day to wit the second tuesday of May being the