William Thomas & Margaret Dyer admrs of Edward Dyer against Thomas Beatty

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the twenty seventh day of January Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety the plaintiffs by David Mc. Mechen their attorney sued out of our General Court the State of Maryland a writ of Scire facias directed to the Sheriff of Frederick County in the words and figures following to wit The State of Maryland Sct. To the Sheriff of Frederick County Greeting, Whereas George Adams, Valentine Adams and Thomas Ogle late of Frederick county on the twenty sixth day of July seventeen hundred and eighty seven did confess Judgment to a certain Edward Dyer before Jacob Young and George Scott two of our Justices of Frederick county for the sum of nine hundred and seventeen pounds eight shillings and two pence current money and seven hundred and thirty one pounds of tobacco. And whereas lately in our General Court on the twentieth day of February in the year seventeen hundred and eighty eight command was given to the Sheriff of Frederick County that he should take the said George Adams, Valentine Adams, and Thomas Ogle late of Frederick county if they should be found in his bailiwick and them should safe keep so that he might have their bodies before the Judges of our said Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May then next to satisfy unto the said Edward Dyer as well the aforesaid sum of current money as the said quantity of tobacco above mentioned, and that thereof he the said Sheriff should not fail at his peril and so forth. On which said second Tuesday of May being the thirteenth day of the same month anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty eight the said Sheriff to wit Thomas Beatty Esquire made return thereof that he had taken the bodies of the said George Adams, Valentine Adams and Thomas Ogle and them had in safe custody to satisfy the sums of current money and tobacco aforesaid as he was by the said writ commanded, but the said Sheriff although solemnly called to bring into Court the bodies of the said George Adams, Valentine Adams, and Thomas Ogle brought in the said Thomas Ogle who was committed to the custody of the said Thomas Beatty Sheriff as aforesaid there to remain untill &c. But as to the bodies of the said George Adams and Valentine Adams brought them not in, but made default, Whereupon Judgment was entered against the said Thomas Beatty for the aforesaid sums of current money and Tobacco as appears to us of Record. And whereas the said Edward Dyer is since lately deceased and administration of all and singular the goods and chattels rights and credits which belonged to the said Edward Dyer at the time of his death to William Thomas and Margaret Dyer was by the Commissary of our County aforesaid, officially, lawfully, constituted to the whom the Commission of the administration aforesaid did of right belong) in due form of law committed, And whereas on the behalf of the said William Thomas and Margaret Dyer administrators aforesaid we have in our Court before us understood, that altho' Judgment is in form aforesaid given Execution nevertheless for the sums of current money and tobacco aforesaid yet remains to be made to them wherefore the said William Thomas and Margaret Dyer administrators aforesaid have besought us to grant them proper remedy in this behalf, and we being willing that what is just in this behalf should be done, command you that by good and lawfull men of your bailiwick you give notice to the said Thomas Beatty that he be before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May next to shew if he has or can say any thing for himself why the said William Thomas and Margaret Dyer administrators aforesaid ought not to have their
