And now at this day comes into the general court here as well the said Thomas Worthington by Zebulon Hollingsworth his attorney as the said Charles Feltty by Robert Smith his attorney, and — thereupon on motion of the said Charles Feltty by his attorney aforesaid it is ruled by the Court here that the said Thomas Worthington assign the errors in the Record of proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid brought before the Court here for correcting the errors — supposed to be therein or Judgment by the Court here will be entered against him in default thereof. whereupon the aforesaid Thomas — Worthington by his attorney aforesaid prays that a day may be given him for the assignment of errors of and upon the record of proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid until the second Tuesday of October next and to him it is granted the same day is given to the said Charles Feltty also.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the thirteenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine which said day was given to the said Thomas Worthington for the assignment of errors of and upon the record of proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid Thomas Worthington by his attorney aforesaid as the said Charles Feltty by his attorney aforesaid; and the said Thomas Worthington by his attorney aforesaid saith that in the Record and proceedings aforesaid and also in the giving of Judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this to wit that by the record aforesaid it appears that the Judgment aforesaid in the plea aforesaid given was given for the said Charles Feltty against the said Thomas Worthington when by the Law of the land that Judgment ought to have been given for the said Thomas Worthington against the said Charles Feltty therefore in that there is manifest error and he prays that the Judgment aforesaid for that error and others being in the record and proceedings aforesaid may be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and that he the said Thomas Worthington may be restored to all that he has lost by occasion of the said Judgment, and that the said Charles Feltty may repeln to the errors aforesaid &c: and the said Charles Feltty by his attorney aforesaid says there is no error in the Record and proceedings aforesaid or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid, and prays likewise that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the Record and proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid by the said Thomas Worthington above for errors assigned; and that the said

Judgment may be in all things affirmed &c. but because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second Tuesday of May next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises. because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised and so forth

At which said second Tuesday of May being the eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety comes again into the general Court here as well the aforesaid Thomas — Worthington by his attorney aforesaid as the said Charles Feltty by his said attorney; but because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second Tuesday of October next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court here are not yet advised and so forth,

At which said second Tuesday of October being the twelfth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety comes again into the general Court here as well the aforesaid Thomas Worthington by his attorney aforesaid as the said Charles — Feltty by his attorney aforesaid; but because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is — further given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second Tuesday of May next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises because the Court now here are not yet advised and so forth

At which said second Tuesday of May being the tenth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid Thomas Worthington by his attorney aforesaid as the said Charles Feltty by his attorney aforesaid; but because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day — therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second Tuesday of October next to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises because the Court now here are not yet advised and so forth

And now here at this day to wit the said second Tuesday of October being the eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one come again into the General Court here the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid: whereupon all and singular the premises being seen, and by the Court here more fully understood and mature deliberation thereupon had for that it appears to the Court here that there is manifest error in the record and proceedings aforesaid and also in the — rendition of the Judgment aforesaid, therefore it is considered by the Court here that the Judgment aforesaid for those errors and others in the Record and

(proceedings