and of the tenor following to wit, The State of Maryland to wit To the Sheriff of Baltimore County greeting, Whereas at a General Court begun and held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May in the year seventeen hundred and ninety one a certain William Lux in the name of Lemon Goodright by — consideration of the same Court recovered against William Pellett and Company late of Baltimore county his possession of in and unto all that tract or parcel of plantable land lying and being in Baltimore county aforesaid, known and distinguished by the name of "Bell Hatch" with the appurtenances containing twenty four acres more or less according to the plaintiffs location thereof by the platt in this cause which lies clear of the plaintiffs location of the tract of land called Whetstone point and lies clear also of the defendants location of Upton Court resurveyed by John Giles by the plain red lines from the black letter H as marked and delineated on the platt hereunto annexed which the said William Pellett and Company from the said William Lux unjustly detained, We therefore command you that without delay you cause the said William Lux to have full and ample possession of in and unto the tract of land aforesaid with the appurtenances thereunto belonging and how you shall execute this writ that you make known unto the Judges of our said Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of October next and have you then and there this writ Witness the Honourable Thomas Johnson Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court the 16th day of June anno Domini 1791.

Richard Ridgely use of John. Muir against Richard Lawrence	Be it remembered that on the twenty second day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one the said Richard Ridgely by Henry Ridgely and

William Cook his attornies sued forth out of the general Court here the writ of the State of Maryland of venditioni exponas in the words and of the tenor following that is to say, The State of Maryland, to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel county greeting, Whereas command was heretofore given to our late Sheriff of Anne Arundel that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of Richard Lawrence late of Anne Arundel county farmer being in his Bailiwick he should cause to be made as well the sum of two hundred pounds current money as certain debt damages as the sum of eight hundred and nine pounds of tobacco costs of suit and that he should have those sums before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of October then next to render unto a certain Richard Ridgely the damages and costs of suit aforesaid, whereof the said Richard Lawrence was convict, on which said second Tuesday of October in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety, our said Sheriff made return thereof to our Judges that by virtue of the aforesaid writ to him directed he took and levied one negroe man named James, one negroe man named Cooly, one negroe woman named Hannah and one negroe woman named Peggy to satisfy the said Richard Ridgely the — damages and costs therein mentioned, all which premises were in his hands for want of buyers, so that the damages and costs aforesaid he could not have as he were by our said writ commanded but for that the said negroes so as aforesaid made remain unsold for want of buyers, as by the return aforesaid appears, Therefore we command you that the said negroes so as aforesaid made you expose to sale, and the money and tobacco therefrom arising you have before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of October next to satisfy unto the said Richard Ridgely the damages and costs aforesaid, and all such cost as hath accrued unto the said Richard Ridgely on the writ of fieri facias aforesaid; and how you shall execute this writ that you make known unto our said Judges at the day and place aforesaid, and have you then and there this writ, Witness the Honourable Thomas Johnson Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court the 16th day of June anno Domini 1791. I found the 22nd day of July 1791 (H.R.)(W.C.) Jno. Gwinn Clk

And now at this day, that is to say the said second Tuesday of October being the eleventh day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one, comes the said Richard Ridgely by his said attornies and the Sheriff of the County aforesaid to whom the said writ was in form aforesaid directed makes return of the writ aforesaid thus endorsed, that is to say "Not sold." J. Williams Shff
