Joseph Sprigg in like manner and soforth.

And the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid further say that they by anything by the said Joseph Sprigg in his second plea above alledged from having or maintaining their action aforesaid thereof against the said Joseph Sprigg to be precluded ought not, because they say that the said writing obligatory in the said declaration mentioned was made and delivered by the said Joseph Sprigg to the said Thomas Brereton in his life time upon a good consideration and for a Just and true debt, owing by the said Joseph Sprigg to the said Thomas Brereton in his life time ~~tonit~~ at washington County aforesaid. without this that the said writing obligatory was made and delivered for the securing the payment of money upon such usurious and unlawful contract, as in that plea mentioned in manner and form as the said Joseph Sprigg hath in and by his said second plea above alledged, and of this the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke put themselves upon the bountry and the said Joseph Sprigg doth the like and soforth.

Therefore let a Jury thereupon appear before the bourt here on the second Tuesday of May next by whom and soforth, and who neither and soforth to recognize and soforth, because as well and soforth, the same day is given to the same parties then and there and soforth.

And now at this day ~~tonit~~ the said second Tuesday of may being the Eighth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one Thousand seven hundred and ninety two come again into the General bourt here as well the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid as the said Joseph Sprigg by his attorney aforesaid; and the said Joseph Sprigg by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averments aforesaid by his said pleas by him in form aforesaid pleaded, says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid the said sum of three hundred and ~~twenty~~ seven pounds four shillings and four pence Current money in manner and form aforesaid, as the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid above against him have declared. Therefore it is considered by the bourt here that the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid recover against the said Joseph Sprigg as well the sum of three hundred and ~~twenty~~ seven pounds four shillings and four pence Current money his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid ~~infessed~~, as also the quantity of Eight hundred and seventy seven pounds of Tobacco by the bourt here unto them the said Richard Ross and Sarah his wife and James Blarke Executors aforesaid on their afsent adjudged for their damages which they have sustained as well by reason of the detention of the said debt, as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in this behalf laid out and expended; and the said Joseph Sprigg in mercy.

Memorandum Judgment rendered in this cause on this fifteenth day of may in the year of our Lord one Thousand seven hundred and ninety two for the sum of three hundred and twenty seven pounds four shillings and four pence current money debt and Eight hundred and seventy seven pounds of Tobacco costs, to be released on payment of one hundred and sixty three pounds twelve shillings and two pence Current money with Interest thereon from the twentieth day of october one Thousand seven hundred and Eighty six and all the cost of an action brought in the General bourt by said Brereton and costs of this suit.
