James Gordon and others vs John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly Exors of John Billingsly

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the fourteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Ninety two the said James Gordon by his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here of and upon a Judgment in the said Court rendered the writ of the State of Maryland of Fieri facias in the words and of the tenor following to wit.

The State of Maryland Sc. To the Sheriff of Charles County greeting Whereas we lately commanded you that of the goods and chattels which were of John Billingsly late of Charles County deceased at the time of his death in the hands and custody of John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly Executors of the Testament and last will of the said John Billingsly deceased remaining in their hands to be administered you should cause to be made and levied as well the sum of Three hundred and ninety two pounds twelve shillings and eleven pence three farthings current money a certain debt which James Gordon, Henry Riddell, John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram before the Judges of our General Court on the second tuesday of October Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety had recovered against them the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly Executors as aforesaid as also the quantity of six hundred and thirty nine pounds of Tobacco which were to the said James Gordon, Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior Alexander Low and William Ingram in our said Court adjudged as well for their damages which they had sustained by reason of the detention of that debt as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended if the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly Executors aforesaid had so much in their hands to be administered then the damages costs and charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper Goods and chattels of them the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly whereof they the said John Billingsly, James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly are convicted as of record is manifest, and that you should have that money and Tobacco before us at the City of annapolis on the second tuesday of May last to render unto the said James Gordon Henry Riddell, John Campbell, John Campbell Junior, Alexander Low and William Ingram their debt damages and costs aforesaid At which said second Tuesday of May last you returned to us that the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly before the coming of the said writ to your hands had wasted and to their own use converted divers goods and chattels which were of the said John Billingsly in the said writ mentioned and which to the hands and possession of the same John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly as Executors of the said John Billingsly came so that the debt aforesaid or any part thereof of the Goods and chattels of the said John Billingsly to be levied or caused to be made you could not and further you did certify to us that you had made of the proper Goods and chattels of the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly the damages costs and charges aforementioned And because the said return aforesaid is thought to be in delay of the execution of the debt aforesaid and also in our same Court before us on the behalf of the said James Gordon Henry Riddell John Campbell John Campbell Junior, Alexander Low and William Ingram it is sufficiently testified that several goods and chattels which belonged to the said John Billingsly at the time of his death came to the hands and possession of the said John Billingsly, James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly Executors aforesaid after the death of the said John Billingsly to be administered and that they the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly have sold and wasted those goods and chattels and the money thereby received to their own proper use have converted and disposed and the residue of the goods and chattels which belonged to the said John Billingsly at the time of his death have been by the said John Billingsly James Billingsly and Clement Billingsly claimed to the intent that the execution aforesaid should not be executed, And we being willing that those things which are lawfully transacted or adjudged in our same Court should be rendered ineffectual by fraud or subtility Command you that of the goods and chattels which belonged to the said John Billingsly at the time of his death in the hands
