The said Benjamin and Mark or the said executors of the said Mary since the death of the said Mary have not nor hath either of them satisfied the debt aforesaid to the said Thomas Cockey deceased in his life time or to the said Caleb and Stephen the said Executors of the said Thomas Cockey since his death paid or satisfied but the same still remains due and unsatisfied to the said Caleb and Stephen executors as aforesaid and so the said Luther saith that the said Mary Benjamin and Mark executors of the said James Cox deceased in the life time of the said Mary and the said Benjamin and Mark since her death have not paid the debts of the said James Cox the testator which he did owe at the time of his death so far forth as the goods chattels and Credits which were of the said James Cox deceased at the time of his death will extend and the law will charge as they the said Mary Benjamin and Mark ought to have done but have wasted and misapplied the same contrary to the form and effect of the Condition of the writing obligatory aforesaid all which the said Luther is prepared to verify and so forth wherefore the said Luther who prosecutes for the said state in this behalf prays Judgment for the said State for the debt aforesaid together with Damages for the detention of that debt to be adjudged and so forth.

The writing obligatory aforesaid in the replication aforesaid above mentioned is in form following to wit.

Know all men by these presents that we Mark Alexander John Deaver and James Cox all of Baltimore county and Province of are held and firmly bound unto Thomas Cockey of the same place in the full and just sum of six hundred pounds Pensylvania money to be paid to the said Thomas Cockey or his certain attorney executors, administrators or Assigns. To which payment well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators and every of them firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this thirteenth day of July anno domini one thousand seven hundred and Seventy one 1771

The

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden Mark Alexander, John Deaver and James Cox their heirs exors. & admrs. or either of them do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said Thomas Cockey or to his certain attorney executors administrators or Assigns the just and full sum of three hundred pounds like current money aforesaid at or upon the thirteenth day of July next ensuing the date hereof with legal interest for the same Then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue in Law.

Sealed and Delivered the presence of — Mark Alexander (seal), John Deaver (seal), James Cox (seal)

David Rush

Joseph Burgess

Septr. 17th 1792 By Cash £12.0.0

By Cash ~~£12.0.0~~

October 13th 1773 By cash for one years interest on the within bond £12.0.0

July 30th 1774 By cash for one years interest on the within bond

And the said John M'Cellan and James Cox crave oyer of the writing obligatory of the said James Cox deceased in the replication of the said state mentioned and to them it is read in these words,

Know all men by these presents that we Mark Alexander John Deaver and James Cox all of Baltimore county and province of Maryland are held and firmly bound unto Thomas Cockey of the same place in the full and just sum of six hundred pounds Pennsylvania money to be paid to the said Thomas Cockey or his certain attorney executors Adminministrators or Assigns to which payment well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators and every of them firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this thirteenth day of July anno domini one thousand seven hundred and seventy one 1771, they also pray oyer of the Condition of the same writing and to them it is read in these words, The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bounden Mark Alexander John Deaver and James Cox their heirs exors. and admrs. or either of them do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid

unto