Kinsey Johns against Ann Pemberton } Be it remembered that heretofore to wit, on the sixth day of October in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety, the said Kinsey Johns by William Cooke his Attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here the writ of the State of Maryland of Summons in Partition, the tenor whereof ensues in the words following, to wit. The State of Maryland, ss. To the Sheriff of Ann Arundel County, Greeting We command you that you summon Ann Pemberton late of Ann Arundel County Widow that she be and appear before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of October Instant to answer unto Kinsey Johns of a plea wherefore whereas the said Ann and the said Kinsey together and for undivided hold one moiety of all those tracts or parcels of land lying and being in Ann Arundel County with the appurtenances called Whites Hall and the Vacancy thereto added called Angle the same Ann refuseth partition thereof to be made between them according to the form of the Statute in such case provided and unjustly and contrary to the form of the said Statute doth not permit the same to be done to the great damage of the said Kinsey and Seisith. Hereof she is not to fail at her peril, and fail not at your Peril, and have you then and there this Writ. Witness the Honourable Thomas Johnson Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court the 17th day of June 1790.

Issued the 6th day of October 1790. W. Cooke. Jno. Gwinn Clk.
