From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Pretty "Snappy" Menu

Cuff Taylor had a near riot in his hen yard last week. Seems the hens were scratching around the cold ground when they found a piece of rubber band frozen in the ice.

"One hen pecked at it," says Cuff, "and it snapped right back. She backed off clucking while another hen tried it, and another. And the 'worm' kept right on snapping back. They all got their feathers ruffled. You never heard such a ruckus!"

"I finally had to break up the ice with an ax before those hens would get back to business and start laying eggs again."

From where I sit, some people raise a pretty big fuss over nothing, too. Take the fellow who would deny me a temperate glass of beer with my game of checkers. Maybe he'd rather have coffee! Well, that's all right. He has a right to his own preference. But so do I. And there's no point in his "snapping" at me just because his choice isn't the same as mine.

Baltimore Aut Show Opens Opens Saturday, Jan. 33

Baltimore's 1955 Auto Show will open Saturday, January 22, at 1 p.m. in a shiny, bright world of color at the Fifth Regiment Armory.

An hour before the opening a procession of the new model cars will arpade from the Baltimore Stadium through downtown Baltimore and to the Armory, and trucks carrying accessory displays will comprise the parade, all of which will be on wheels.

There will be nearly 15 new autos on the Armory floor, including several of each of 18 American makes, foreign cars, cars of the future and experimental models. A generous sprinkling of ancient vintage cars will be on display to exemplify the world of progress made in the automotive industry.

Color will be the keynote in addition to styling. "This year's show will really be a new look from all aspects, according to J. Cavendish Darrell ,Auto Show Director. "The whole automotive industry seems to have gone in for a facelifting," Darrell commented.

Two-tone cars will be the fashion. And some of the cars will go into three tones.

The show will continue until Saturday, January 29. The show will be closed on Sunday, January 30.

Special events during the week include "United Nations Day" on Tuesday, January 24; "Sports Day" on Wednesday; "Celebrities Day" on Thursday; and "MasqueradeDay for Children' 'on Friday.

Piped-in music will be heard in the Armory daily. Admission price will be a standard 50 cents at all times.
