Defendants

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR QUEEN ANNE'S CODNTY IN EQUITY

Cause No. 3976

The object of this proceeding is to secure the foreclosure of all rights of redemption in the following property assessed to E.G. Bullock Estate in the Town of Centreville, Maryland, sold by the Collector of Taxes of The Town Commissioners of Centreville, a municipal corporation, to the Plaintiffs in this proceeding:

"The property located in the Town of Centreville described as: All that parcel of land and premises located on Glendale Avenue adjoining Miss Alice Jewell."

The Bill states, among other things, that the amounts necessary for redemption have not been paid, although more than a year and a day from the date of sale have expired.

It is thereupon, this 8th day of February, 1955, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, ORDERED, that notice be given by the insertion of a copy of this order in some newspaper having a general circulation in Queen Anne's County, once a week for four successive weeks warning all persons interested in the said property to be and appear in THIS Court by the 11th day of April, 1955 ,and redeem the property assessed to E.G. Bullock Estate and answer the Bill or thereafter, a final decree will be rendered foreclosing all rights of redemption in the property, and vesting in the Plaintiff a title free and clear of all encumbrances.

Taylor, 5734 Sampson St., Philadelphia, Penna., Maggie Taylor ,Philadelphia, Penna. Sarah Ellis, 1255 N. Frazier St., Philadelphia, Penna.

All unknown heirs of Mary E. Taylor, deceased.

The object of this suit is to have Defendants decree that Charles Wayman and Harriett L. Wayman, his wife, are the equitable owners of a lot of land situate in Centreville, Maryland, the legal title to which is in the heirs of Mary E. Taylor, deceased; and to have the Court appoint a Trustee to convey said legal title to the said Charles Wayman and Harriett L. Wayman, his wife.

The Bill of Complaint states that Charles Wayman and wife purchased said lot of land from Louis G.E. Smith and wife and claims the title to said lot is not good and merchantible; and Louis G.E. Smith and wife are grantees from John Taylor et al.; that the said John Taylor was granted and conveyed said lot after full payment of purchase money by him from Annie Reed, widow, the deed being taken in the name of Mary E. Taylor; John Taylor intending that should he die seized and possessed of said lot that Mary E. Taylor, his mother, should own same, but having full right to dispose of the same in any manner he desired, that Mary E. Taylor died in 1925, and that John Taylor died in 1953, that the heirs of Mary E. Taylor are possessed of the naked legal title which they hold in trust for Charles Wayman and Harriett L. Wayman, his wife.

ORDERED this 8th day of February, 1955, that the Complainants by causing a copy of this Order to be published once a week for four successive weeks before the 12th day of March, 1955, in some newspaper printed and published in Queen Anne's County, give notice to the said Eva Hollis, Elizabeth H. Barboza, Marcella Hollis, Fannie Neals, Anna M. Downes, Eiza Downes, Milton Downes, James Downes, Anna B. Taylor, Edward Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor, Charles H. Taylor, Maggie Taylor, Sarah Ellis, non-residents of the State of Maryland, residing at the addresses as above set forth and all unknown heirs of Mary E. Taylor, deceased, to be and appear, either in person or by solicitor, in this court on or before the 28th day of March, 1955, to show cause why the relief prayed should not be granted.
