Seal of Ann Arundel County Court

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of office this 12th day of December anno Domini 1791.

Nich. Harwood (Ck).

And now at this day comes into the General Court here, as well the said Thomas Price by Gabriel Duvall his attorney aforesaid, as the said James Pattison by Philip Barton Key his attorney; and thereupon, on motion of the said James Pattison by his attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Thomas Price assign the errors in the record of proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid, brought before the Court here for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or Judgment by the Court here will be entered against him in default thereof: Whereupon the aforesaid Thomas Price by his attorney aforesaid, prays that a day may be given him for the assignment of errors of and upon the record of proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid until the second Tuesday of October next, and to him it is granted; the same day is given to the said James Pattison also:

At which said second Tuesday of October being the ninth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two, which said day was given to the said Thomas Price for the assignment of errors of and upon the record and proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid, comes again into the General Court here, as well the aforesaid Thomas Price by his attorney aforesaid, as the said James Pattison by his attorney aforesaid: and the said Thomas Price by his attorney aforesaid, saith, that in the record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Judgment aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid it appears that the Judgment aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said James Pattison against the said Thomas Price when by the Law of the Land that Judgment ought to have been given for the said Thomas Price against the said James Pattison: therefore in that there is manifest error, and he prays that the Judgment aforesaid for that error, and others, being in the record and proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as as void, and that he the said Thomas Price may be restored to all that he has lost by occasion of the said Judgment, and that the said James Pattison may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, &c. And the said James Pattison by his attorney aforesaid, says, there is no error in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid and prays likewise that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the record and proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid by the said Thomas Price above for errors assigned, and that the said Judgment may be in all things affirmed, &c. but because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second Tuesday of May next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised &c.

And now at this day to wit, the second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the said Month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, come again into the General Court here the parties aforesaid, by their attornies aforesaid: Whereupon, as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the Judgment given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid by the said Thomas Price above for errors assigned, being seen and fully understood by the Court here, and mature deliberation thereupon had, for it appears to the Court here, that there is no error either in the record and proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving Judgment aforesaid: Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the Judgment aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed, and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned and alleged in any wise notwithstanding: And it is further considered by the Court here, that the said James Pattison have execution against the said Thomas Price as well for the Damages, costs and charges aforesaid as adjudged unto him in the said County Court of Ann Arundel as also the sum of three pounds thirteen shillings and three pence current money, adjudged unto the said James Pattison by the Court here for his additional Damages and the quantity of six hundred and thirty eight pounds of Tobacco for his costs and charges which he hath sustained by occasion of the delay of the execution of the Judgment aforesaid, by pretext of the prosecution of the said appeal by the said Thomas Price of and upon the premises aforesaid prosecuted—

Memorandum, Judgment affirmed in this cause on the seventeenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, for the sum of Thirty seven pounds two shillings
