John Stevenson did not pay unto the said John Lee Webster the aforesaid sum of one hundred and Forty one pounds fifteen shillings current money in the said Bill obligatory mentioned and the interest thereon due at the day of the payment in the said Bill mentioned or anytime before or since the said day of payment in the said Bill mentioned and the said Jury doth further say that there is at this time Justly due and owing to the said John Lee Webster on the said Bill obligatory the sum of fifty four pounds seventeen shillings and three pence current money. And the said Jury upon their oath do further say that the sum of one Thousand and seventy pounds current money hath not been paid to the said Daniel Dulany in part of the said Judgment and in satisfaction of the same by the said William Hammond and John Stevenson and that the said William and John on the day of the impetration of the writ of him the said John Lee Webster had not goods or chattels which were of the said John Stevenson at the time of his Death in their hands to be administered over and above goods and chattels sufficient to satisfy the said sum of money then and now due and payable on the said writing obligatory and Judgment aforesaid wherewith the said William Hammond and John Stevenson could have satisfied the said John Lee Webster his Debt and Damages aforesaid. Seal of Baltimore County Court

In Testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of my Office this twenty ninth day of September seventeen hundred and ninety two.

William Gibson Clk. Balt. County.

And now at this day comes into the General Court here, as well the said John Lee Webster by Rebulon Hollingsworth his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Hammond and John Stevenson Executors aforesaid by David McMechen their attorney. And thereupon, on motion of the William Hammond and John Stevenson executors aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid it is ruled by the Court here, that the said John Lee Webster assign the errors in the record of proceedings of the Judgment aforesaid, brought before the Court here for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or Judgment by the Court here will be entered against him in default thereof; And the aforesaid John Lee Webster by Rebulon Hollingsworth his attorney aforesaid cometh and saith that in the Record and proceedings aforesaid and also in the giving of the Judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this that by the Record aforesaid it appears that the said Judgment in manner and form aforesaid given, was given for him the said John Lee Webster against them the said William Hammond and John Stevenson Executors aforesaid in the plea aforesaid to be levied on the goods and chattels which belonged to the said John Stevenson at the time of his death and which shall hereafter come to the hands of them the said William Hammond and John Stevenson to be administered. Whereas by the Law of the State of Maryland that Judgment ought to have been for the said John Lee Webster against the said William Hammond and Stevenson Executors aforesaid to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said John Stevenson at the time of his death in the hands of the said William Hammond and John Stevenson executors aforesaid (remaining) to be administered if so much thereof they have be. and if so much thereof in their hands
