THE SWEATER

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

STARTS HOME FROM SCHOOL, WISHES IT WEREN'T SO WARM AND THAT HE DIDN'T HAVE HIS SWEATER ON

TAKES SWEATER OFF AND WISHES HE DIDN'T HAVE TO CARRY IT

AFTER A WHILE SWEATER BEGINS TO DRAG ON GROUND, WHICH HE DOESN'T MIND EXCEPT THAT HE KEEPS STEPPING ON IT AND TRIPPING

PUTS BOOKS DOWN AND TIES SWEATER AROUND HIS WAIST

STEPS ALONG BRISKLY UNTIL HE REALIZES HE LEFT BOOKS A BLOCK AND A HALF BEHIND

GOES BACK AND CONCEIVES IDEA OF MAKING A SORT OF BAG OF SWEATER TO CARRY BOOKS IN

THIS WORKS PRETTY WELL UNTIL FIRST ONE BOOK AND THEN THE OTHER STARTS DRIPPING

DECIDES HE'LL KEEP COOLER IF HE PUTS SWEATER ON A-GAIN

For best results in painting a new brick wall, use a paint made with a Portland cement base. It comes in powder form and is mixed with water.

Nut meats may be removed from the shell without breaking the kernel if hot water is poured over the nuts and allowed to remain through the night.

Winding wool is difficult if there is no one to hold it. Put two flat-irons on a table at a sufficient distance apart to allow the wool to be tightly stretched. Then wind over the irons, just as if someone was holding it.

When running rods through your curtains put a thimble on the end of the rod. It will run through more easily.

If short of eggs when making scrambled eggs for the gang, add a tablespoon of fine bread or cracker crumbs for each egg short - up to half eggs and half crumbs.

When washing white silk blouses, dresses, ties, etc., for the first time, put a dessertspoonful of powdered borax dissolved in enough cold water to cover the article, leave it soaking for half an hour, then wash in the usual way. This prevents the silk from becoming yellow.

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

● In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.

● It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world: the feeling of being adequately prepared.

● When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. Thus advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.
