knew where a small poplar stood said he knew nothing about it, being asked if he knew how long it was since a fence ran to the Southward of a Valley near where he this Deponent now stands, saith 15 years or more, being asked if he knew how long an apple Orchard, about Three hundred yards south East from where he now stands, had been planted, said he did not know being asked if he knew how long since the Ground was cleared beyond the Valley above described saith about 14 or 15 years ago being asked whether the Trees were cut down when he cleared his own Land, as above, said he did not remember; being asked whether he remembered where he cut Nicholas Swoomsteds chain in two, saith about 50 yards North from where he now stands being ask'd if his Land and Mr Dares did not Join saith they did, but that their Fences did not Join, but ran very near together – and further saith not – June 2nd 1788 – W. Allein Shff.

No 17. The Deposition of Samuel Shew aged and sworn as in No 14. and standing near a Hiccory described in No 4 deposeth and saith that about 20 years ago Richard Gibson deceased then, aged about 70 years, was sworn at said Hiccory and standing about 60 strides to the Northward of a Branch on a Hill side, and about 8 feet from said Hiccory deposeth that within twenty yards East or West, that he was present when Sabret Sollars proved this to be the place where the Tree of Swinsons Rest stood the said Deponent also deposeth and saith that the Deposition of William Allnutt, then aged about 61 years, was taken at the same time as follows, and standing about 9 strides to the North West of the place where the Deposition of Richard Gibson was taken, deposeth that about 20 years ago he was desired by William Dare to come and run his Land out and that this deponent began at a small Walnut Tree standing in the fork of a Road and run East to a bounded Hiccory Tree standing within 8 or 9 yards from this place which appeared to be notched, which the said Dare told him this deponent was the tree off his Land to the best of his knowledge and then he run north to a bounded Gum Tree standing by the side of a small Drain (but this Deponent cannot tell whether it was before Josias Sunderland brought his action against the said Dare or after, and when the Land was resurveyed he this deponent was on the Land, and the Resurvey began at the Walnut Tree above mentioned and run to a Hiccory Tree standing now this this place and run to the Gum aforesaid and the Surveyor made his return so, and when the Law suit was tried for a Trespass, he this Deponent was on the Jury, and that the Jury brought in their Verdict for William Dare according to his pretentions, and that this deponent was not present when Sabert Sollars proved a Hiccory Tree, neither did he know the place where he proved and further saith not – June 2nd 1788 – W. Allein Shff.

No 18. The Deposition of John Sunderland Aged & sworn as in No 3. and standing by a Walnut Stump in the fork of a Road, deposeth and saith that Mr William Dare now deceased told him this deponent, that the said Stump was the beginning boundary of his the said Dare's Land – and further saith not. June 2nd 1788 – W. Allein Shff –

No 19. The Deposition of John Sunderland aged and sworn as in No 3. and standing by a fence about 50 Perches West off the Stone and post described in No 7. & 8. deposeth and saith that the said Fence where he now stands ran as it does now 13 years ago, or more and then the Rails appeared to be old, being asked whether he knew when the Hill side was cleared to the Southward of where he now stands, said he knew nothing about it – and further saith not – June 2nd 1788 – W. Allein Shff.

No 20. The Deposition of Samuel Lyles aged and sworn as in No 4. and standing by a Cedar post described in No 2. deposeth and saith that William Askew told him that the said post was two perches within a tract off Land called Lowing: but this Deponent saith they were not at the post when the said Askew told him, but saith he always understood it was a division line between Rake and Sunderland, this Deponent also saith he never was at the post when it was proved – and further saith not – June 2nd 1788 – W. Allein Shff.

No 21. The Deposition of Richard Ward aged and sworn as before now standing by a Stone and Post described in No 7. Deposeth that he was present when a certain Buchmaster was sworn at the place where he now stands, and prov'd a Poplar Tree then standing in the place where the Stone and post are now fixed to be a boundary off Rakes Land being asked in behalf off the defendant if he ever heard or knew that Henry Harrison prov'd this place to be a division Tree between Rake and Sunderland, Answers that Harrison was sworn here but he cannot remember what he said, being asked by the Plaintiff if the fence stood in the place it now does when he the said Ward cut Nicholas Swoomsteds