State of Maryland against Levin Bovington Wailes } Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the twentieth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two, the said State of Maryland by Luther Martin its attorney General, prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here the writ of the State of Maryland of capias ad respondendum, directed to the Sheriff of Prince Georges County, in the words following, to wit, The State of Maryland, &c. To the Sheriff of Prince Georges County, greeting. We command you that you take Levin Bovington Wailes late of Prince Georges County Gentleman, otherwise called Levin Bovington Wailes of Prince Georges County if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May next, to answer unto the State of Maryland of a plea that he render unto the said State the full sum and Just quantity of two hundred thousand Pounds of good sound merchantable leaf Tobacco and cask which to the said he owes and unjustly detains and Soforth. Hereof fail not at your Peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honourable Samuel Chase Esquire, Chief Judge of our said Court, the 14th day of February anno Dominis 1792. Issued the 20th day of February 1792. (L Martin) Jno. Gwinn, Clk and the said State of Maryland by its attorney General aforesaid, on the day of prosecuting and suing forth the said writ, declared in Court here against the said Levi Bovington Wailes in the plea aforesaid, as follows, to wit, Maryland Prince Georges County, to Levin Bovington Wailes late of Prince Georges County Gentleman otherwise called Levin Bovington Wailes of Prince Georges County was summoned to answer unto the State of Maryland of a plea that he render unto the said State the full sum and Just quantity of two hundred thousand Pounds of good sound Merchantable leaf Tobacco and cask, which to the said State he owes and unjustly detains and Soforth. And Whereupon the same State of Maryland by Luther Martin its Attorney saith that whereas the same Levin B. Wailes the the first day of January in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety at the County aforesaid, by his certain bill obligatory, (with the seal of the same Levin B. Wailes sealed, and here into Court brought, whose date is the same day and year) had acknowledged himself to owe and be indebted to the same State of Maryland in the said sum of two hundred thousand pounds of good sound merchantable leaf Tobacco and cask to be paid unto the same State of Maryland when afterwards he should be thereunto requested. Nevertheless the same Levin B. Wailes although often required the aforesaid sum of good sound merchantable leaf Tobacco and cask to the same State of Maryland yet hath not rendered, but that unto the State of Maryland to render hath altogether refused, and still doth refuse, to the Damage of the same State of Maryland to render hath altogether refused, and still doth refuse, to the Damage of the same State of Maryland to the value of two hundred thousand Pounds current money of Maryland and therefore the said State brings this suit, and Soforth
