as aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid, and if the said Robert Johnson, George Johnson, and John Johnson devisees as aforesaid, doth not answer to the declaration of the said Ann Yeldell Executrix as aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid, Judgment will be rendered against him by default: and the said Robert Johnson, George Johnson and John Johnson devisees as aforesaid, by their said attorney, defends the force and injury, when, and Soforth, and prays leave of the Court here to imparle until the second Tuesday of October next, and then to answer to the declaration aforesaid of the said Ann Yeldell Executrix as aforesaid in the plea aforesaid, and to them it is granted; the same day is given to the aforesaid Ann Yeldell Executrix as aforesaid also—

At which said second Tuesday of October being the ninth day of the said month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two, to which said day the said Robert Johnson, George Johnson and John Johnson devisees of aforesaid had leave to imparle, and then to answer to the declaration aforesaid of the said Ann Yeldell Executrix as aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid, comes again into the General Court here, as well the said Ann Yeldell Executrix as aforesaid, by her attorney aforesaid, as the said Robert Johnson, George Johnson and John Johnson devisees as aforesaid, by their attorney aforesaid; And the said Robert Johnson the now defendant by Gabriel Duvall his attorney comes defends the force and injury when and soforth; And saith that he ought not to be charged with the debt aforesaid as heir at law and devisee of the said Robert deceased by virtue of the writing obligatory aforesaid because he saith that he hath not, nor on the day of issuing the original writ in this cause, or at any time since had any lands or tenements by hereditary descent as heir at law of the said Robert Johnson, deceased, or by devise from the said Robert Johnson: and this he the said Robert the now defendant is ready to verify, wherefore he prays Judgment if he ought to be charged with the debt aforesaid as heir at Law and devisee of the said Robert deceased and Soforth.

And the said George and John by Gabriel Duvall their attorney come and defend the force and injury when and Soforth and say that they ought not to be charged with the debt aforesaid as devisees of the said Robert deceased by virtue of the writing obligatory aforesaid because they say that they have not, nor at any time since had any lands or tenements by devise from the said Robert deceased.

deceased: and this they are ready to verify wherefore they pray Judgment if they ought to be charged with the Debt aforesaid as devisees of the said Robert deceased and Soforth.

And the said Ann says that by any thing by the said Robert the now defendant above in pleading alleged he the said Robert as heir at Law and devisee of the said Robert deceased ought to be charged with the debt aforesaid, by virtue of the writing obligatory aforesaid, because she says that on the twenty first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one which said day the writ original in this cause was impetrated and sued forth, the said Robert the now defendant had divers Lands and Tenements by hereditary descent and by devise from the said Robert deceased, wherewith he might have satisfied the said Ann the said Debt, to wit, at anne arundel County aforesaid: And this she prays may be inquired of by the Country: And the said Robert the now defendant thereof likewise and Soforth—

And the said Ann says that by any thing by the said George and John above in pleading alleged the same George and John as devisees of the said Robert deceased ought to be charged with the Debt aforesaid by virtue of the writing obligatory aforesaid because she says that on the twenty first day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one which said day the writ original in this cause was impetrated and Soforth, the said George and John had divers Lands and tenements by devise from the said Robert deceased, wherewith they might have satisfied the said Ann the said Debt, to wit, at the County aforesaid: and this she prays may be inquired of by the Country and the said George and John thereof likewise and Soforth. Therefore let a Jury thereupon appear before the Court here on the second Tuesday of May next by whom, and Soforth, and who neither, and Soforth, to recognize and Soforth, because as well and Soforth, the same day is given to the said parties then and there and Soforth—

And now at this day, to wit, the said second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two, comes again into the General Court here, as well the said Ann Yeldell Executrix as aforesaid, by her attorney aforesaid, as the said Robert Johnson heir
