Test. John Gwinn Clerk

James Dunlop against Thomas B. Beall	Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the fifth day of September Anno Dominì one thousand seven hundred and ninety two, James Dunlop by Philip Barton Key his Attorney sued out of her General Court here, the State of Maryland's writ of Capias ad respondendum directed to the Sheriff of Montgomery County in words and figures following to wit

The State of Maryland ss. To the Sheriff of Montgomery County Greeting. We Command you that you take Thomas Brooke Beall late of Montgomery County planter, otherwise called Thomas Brooke Beall of said County, if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second tuesday of October next, to answer unto James Dunlop of said County in a plea that he render to him the full and just Sum of Seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Maryland Currency of the value of seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Current money, which from him he unjustly detains and so forth: Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honorable Samuel Chase Esquire chief Judge of our said Court the first day of August Anno Dominì 1792 Issued the 5th. day of September 1792 (P. Bk) Wm. Gwinn Clk.

And the said James Dunlop by his Attorney aforesaid, declares against the said Thomas Brooke Beall in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit. Western Shore Montgomery County to wit, Thomas Brooke Beall late of Montgomery County planter, otherwise called Thomas Brooke Beall of said County was summoned to answer unto James Dunlop of said County in a plea that he render to him the full and just Sum of Seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Maryland Currency of the value of seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Current money which from him he unjustly detains and so forth. — And whereupon the said James by Philip Barton Key his Attorney saith that whereas the aforesaid Thomas Brooke on the thirty first day of October in the year seventeen hundred and ninety one at the County aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory obligatory acknowledged himself to be held and bound unto the said James in the said Sum of seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Maryland Currency of the value aforesaid to be paid to the said James when afterwards he should be thereunto required. And the said James in fact saith that the aforesaid Sum of seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Maryland Currency at the time of making the writing obligatory aforesaid, then was, now is and since always hitherto hath been of the value of seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Current Money. Nevertheless the said Thomas Brooke altho often thereto requested the aforesaid Sum of Maryland Currency or the value thereof in Current money or any part thereof hitherto hath not paid but the same to pay he hath altogether refused and still doth refuse, wherefore the said James is the worse and hath damage to the value of one thousand pounds Current money, and therefore he brings Suit and so forth. —

Philip B. Key for Plff. Pledges &c. John Doe and Richard Roe.

Oyer of the writing obligatory in the Declaration aforesaid mentioned and the Condition thereof follow. —

Know all Men by these presents, that I Thomas Brooke Beall of Montgomery County am held and firmly bound unto James Dunlop of said County in the full and just Sum of seven hundred and forty five pounds nine shillings and four pence half penny Maryland Currency to be paid unto the said James Dunlop, his certain Attorney executors administrators or assigns, to the which payment well and truly to be made and done I bind myself my heirs executors and administrators firmly by these presents sealed with my seal and dated this thirty first day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one The Condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound Thomas Brooke Beall do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said James Dunlop his certain Attorney executors administrators or assigns, the full and just Sum of three hundred and seventy two pounds fourteen shillings and eight pence farthing Currency aforesaid on or before the first day of September next with legal Interest thereon; then the above obligation to be void, else to remain in full force and virtue in Law. —
