

With U. S. Para-Ski Troopers

Para-ski troopers in training near Salt Lake City are advancing rapidly from embryo skiers to full-fledged experts. Some of these trainees had never seen snow until they arrived here for this training period.

Troopers move swiftly and silently on cross country training run. Beautiful Mt. Superior can be seen in the background.

Gliding swiftly and silently atop Mt. Baldy, para-ski troopers take on moral and physical fiber.

Going down the mountain is one thing, but going up is another. Here you see para-ski troopers using the ski lift at Alta Lodge.

IN "HAPPY Go Lucky" Mary Martin will have a new hairdress that's the result of a suggestion from Jack Beddington, of the English Ministry of Information. He cabled David Rose, Paramount's managing director in Great Britain (then in this country). "Medical authorities here consider it highly desirable in the interests of hygiene and safety that factory girls and other war workers should wear hair as short as possible on the back of the neck. Urge you to persuade Hollywood star to adopt similar style to encourage them to do so."

Chris-Pin Martin made actors out of his six grandchildren the other day. Told to select half a dozen youngsters between the ages of four and ten to be his family in "Across the Border," the new Hopalong Cassidy film, he just went home and got them.

That well-known book, "The Moon and Sixpence," has been a headache to most of the movie companies; it's been owned or held under option by Paramount, Warner Bros.,

GEORGE SANDERS

RKO and Metro. The trouble was getting a script that would pass the censors. Now we hear that it's to be done for United Artists, with George Sanders as the hero who abandoned his wife and his business to be a painter in the South Seas.

"Woman of the Year" lives up to all the enthusiastic predictions that Metro made for it. Almost 300,000 persons paid to see it during the first two weeks of its run at New York's Radio City Music Hall—and a lot of them stood in line plenty long for the opportunity! It's one of the best of the year, certainly; also one of the best that Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy have ever given us.

If you like gangster melodramas "Johnny Eager" should suit you right down to the ground. Robert Taylor is fine as the tough hero. Lana Turner lovely as the pretty daughter of the District Attorney. Nothing novel about the plot, but plenty of excitement.

Hours are spent checking the questions and answers on the Phil Baker "Take It Or Leave It" program (Sundays over CBS); the search bureau has to be sure of getting the only correct answer. Yet the public frequently thinks they're wrong. Recently hundreds of Persians objected to the statement that the Mazda lamp wasn't named for an individual—they said that Mazda was an ancient Persian god, and they felt that he was entitled to recognition. But the researchers classed him with Zeus and Apollo and ruled him out as a mere man.

"The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" will always be the most romantic song in the world to Mrs. Chester Lauck and Mrs. Norris Goff, whose husbands are Lum and Abner of the radio and the movies. Both men were members of the fraternity at the University of Arkansas, and wooed their home-town sweethearts with the song—Goff did it on the saxophone, Lauck put his proposal campaign on with the drums!

The Aldrich Family of the air waves has given many a young actress a boost toward bigger things. Between Henry's sister and his many sweethearts a lot of girls are needed for it. Betty Field's a graduate of the program; so are Mary Mason, of the air's "Maudie's Diary" and the stage, Patricia Ryan, of "Claudia," and Patricia Pearson, star of the Broadway hit, "Junior Miss," which Shirley Temple takes over for radio.

ODDS AND ENDS—Ransom Sherman, proprietor of radio's smartest hotel, Crestfallen Manor, was appointed "Lobby Bobby" of the International Hotel Greeters association. . . . Judy Garland's next film will be "The Big Time," a story of vaudeville. . . . Mikhail Rossmay, the very funny Mexican garage mechanic in "Hold Back the Dawn," is cast as the gypsy in "For Whom the Bell Tolls." . . . Josephine, the most famous monkey in pictures, celebrated her 15th year as an actress on the set of Columbia's "Canal Zone"—also her 30th birthday. . . . Cary Grant maintains that in "The Gentlemen Misbehave" he's the screen's worst-dressed man.

THINGS for You TO MAKE

APPLIQUE costumes complemented by traditional wooden shoes give a picturesque appeal to these new Dutch tea towel motifs. Industrious little Gretchen decorates the towels for Monday, Wednesday and Friday; her very best boy friend, Hans, is on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday's towels. Sunday's motif shows them both, as on the panholders.

Famous Common Scold

The most famous woman in the history of the United States to be tried as a common scold was Anne Royall, whose case came before the circuit court of the District of Columbia in 1829, says Collier's. Upon conviction, a ducking stool was built by the navy department to inflict the usual punishment, but the lady was let off with a fine of $10 and made to put up bond of $50 as assurance that she would "curb her sharp tongue and shrewish ways."
