to the said Thomas Johnson by the Court here untill the second Tuesday of May next following.

At which said second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety three comes again here into our General Court as well the aforesaid Robert Amos by his Attonies aforesaid as the aforesaid Thomas Johnson by his Attorney aforesaid. But the Arbitrators aforesaid have not returned their award nor have they done any thing therein. Thereupon further day is given as well to the said Robert Amos as to the said Thomas Johnson by the Court here until the second Tuesday of October next following.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the eighth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety three comes again here again into our General Court as well the aforesaid Robert Amos by his Attonies aforesaid as the aforesaid Thomas Johnson by his Attorney aforesaid Thereupon the Arbitrators aforesaid in pursuance of the Order of Refferrence aforesaid return to the Court here the following Award to wit, Robert Amos, vs. Thomas Johnson, This Action having been referred to us by a Rule of the General Court at October Term seventeen hundred and ninety two we have heared and considered the proofs and Allegations of both the parties and being of opinion that the condition of the Bond on which the action brought extends only to the duty of a Deputy Sheriff and not to the collection of publick Assessments with which the plaintiff might have been entrusted by the State and also that as Deputy Sheriff and exclusive of such publick Assessments the Defendant has fully paid up and settled all that could be rightfully demanded of or was due from him to the plaintiff, We do award and determine in favour of the Defendant that the Plaintiff is not entitled to recover any thing in this action and that Judgment be Non Suit be entered against him as Witness our hands and Seals this nineteenth day of October 1793

William Smithson (seal)
John Carlile (seal)

But for that the said Thomas Johnson not having complied with the necessary requisites as required by Act of Assembly in order to have his Judgment further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said parties and their Attonies aforesaid and by order of Court here thereon is further continued until the second Tuesday of May next following.

And now here, at this day to wit, the said second Tuesday of May being the thirteenth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety four comes again here into our General Court as well the aforesaid Robert Amos by his Attonies aforesaid as the aforesaid Thomas Johnson by his Attorney aforesaid And the aforesaid Robert Amos by Zebulon Hollingsworth his Attorney aforesaid prays that no Judgment may be entered on the award aforesaid returned in this Cause because for reason he saith that the Arbitrators

Arbitrators were mistaken in point of Law in as much as the Condition of the said Bond does include the publick Taxes of the State and County of Harford, Whereupon all and singular the premises and the reason aforesaid being by the Court here seen heared and fully understood and mature deliberation thereupon had for that it seems to the said Court the matter in the Reasons aforesaid are insufficient to set the award aside so as aforesaid returned — It is therefore considered by the Judges here that the said Amos take nothing by his Writ aforesaid against the said Thomas Johnson but that he and his pledges of prosecution to wit, John Doe and Richard Roe be in mercy &c for his false clamour and that the aforesaid Thomas Johnson go thereof without day &c, And it is also considered that the said Thomas Johnson recover against the aforesaid Robert Amos the quantity of pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto him on his absent adjudged for his Costs and Charges by him about his Defence in this Behalf laid out and expended, And that he have thereof his Execution &c.

And thereupon the aforesaid Robert Amos by his Attornies aforesaid prays an appeal from the Judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid rendered to the State of Marylands High Court of Appeals and the same is granted unto him,

It is therefore ordered by the Court here that the Record and proceedings aforesaid with all things thereunto relating be transmitted to the State of Marylands High Court of Appeals, and the same are transmitted to the same Court accordingly.
