General Court and the aforesaid quantity of Tobacco adjudged to him the said David Lynn by the said High Court of appeals or any part thereof and this he is ready to verify, whereofore he prays Judgment and so forth.

And thereupon on motion of the said David by his attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Joseph rejoin to the Replication of the said David in the plea aforesaid and if the said Joseph doth not rejoin to the Replication of the aforesaid David, Judgment will be rendered against him in default thereof.

And the said Joseph by his attorney aforesaid prays leave of the Court here to imparle unto the second Tuesday of October next and then to rejoin to the Replication aforesaid, and to him it is granted, the same day is given to the aforesaid David also.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the eighth day of the same Month in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety three comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid David by his attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid Joseph by his attorney aforesaid; and the said Joseph saith that the said David by reason of any thing above alleged ought not to have or maintain his action aforesaid against him the said Joseph because protesting that all and singular the matters and things in the Condition of the said writing obligatory mentioned have been hitherto well and truly observed performed and kept by the said Joseph Protesting also that the replication ---- aforesaid in form aforesaid pleaded and the matter therein contained are not sufficient in Law to maintain the said action for plea Nevertheless in this behalf the said Joseph Wood saith that the aforesaid David his action aforesaid thereof against him to have or maintain ought not because he saith that he the aforesaid Joseph on the day of in the year of paid to the said David the Judgment aforesaid in the replication aforesaid mentioned according to the tenor thereof and this he prays may be enquired of by the Country.

And the aforesaid David saith that the rejoinder aforesaid, by the aforesaid Joseph in manner and form aforesaid, above in his rejoinder pleaded, and the matter in the same contained are no wise sufficient in Law to preclude him the said David from having his said action against the said Joseph which said Rejoinder the said David is under no necessity, nor is he any wise bound by the law of the Land to answer; and this he is ready to verify, Wherefore for want of a sufficient Plea in this behalf the said David prays Judgment, and his debt aforesaid, together with his damages by occasion of the detaining of that Debt to be adjudged to him and so forth.

And the said David says that the plea of the said Joseph above rejoining pleaded and the matter in the same contained are not sufficient in Law to preclude him the said David from having and maintaining his action aforesaid and that he to that plea in manner and form aforesaid pleaded hath no necessity nor is he by the Law of the Land obliged to answer and this he is ready to verify. Wherefore for want of sufficient plea in this behalf the same David as before prays Judgment together with his damages and Costs by him about his suit in this behalf sustained, and so forth.

And the aforesaid Joseph by his attorney aforesaid prays leave of the Court here to imparle until next Court and he hath it the same day is given to the aforesaid David also.

And now at this day to wit the said second Tuesday of May being the thirteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety four comes again into the General Court as well the said David by his attorney aforesaid, as the aforesaid Joseph by his attorney aforesaid; and the said Joseph by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averments above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid David so as aforesaid against him declared; nor but that he owes to the aforesaid David the aforesaid sum of Eighteen hundred pounds Current Money in manner and form aforesaid, so as the aforesaid David above against him hath declared.

Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the aforesaid David recover against the said Joseph as well the sum of Eighteen hundred pounds Current Money his Debt aforesaid as the quantity of Eight hundred and nineteen pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto the aforesaid David on his absent adjudged for his damages Justained by reason of the detention of that Debt as for his costs and charges in this behalf laid out and expended; and the said Joseph in mercy and so forth.

Memorandum, Judgment rendered in this cause on the seventeenth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety four for Penalty and costs to be released on payment of Nine hundred pounds Current Money and one thousand nine hundred and eighty one and two fifths of a pound of Tobacco at twelve shillings and six pence per cent and costs – any payments made appear to Mr William Riche to be allowed.
