same day is given to the said John Moale the Plaintiff also.

At which said second Tuesday in May being the fourteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, comes again into the General Court here the parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid, and thereupon the aforesaid John Moale the plaintiff as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, It is ruled by the Court here that the aforesaid Defendants answer to the declaration aforesaid of the aforesaid Plaintiff in the plea aforesaid, or Judgment by the Court here will be entered against them in default thereof, and the said Defendants by their said Attorney defend the force and injury when and so forth and pray leave of the Court here to imparle until the second Tuesday of October next, and then to answer unto the declaration aforesaid of the aforesaid Plaintiff in the plea aforesaid, and to them it is granted, the same day is given to the aforesaid Plaintiff also.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the eighth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three to which said day the said Defendants had leave to imparle and then to answer unto the declaration aforesaid of the aforesaid Plaintiff in the plea aforesaid comes again into the General Court here the parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid; And the said Defendants by their attorney aforesaid as before defends the force and injury when and so forth, and saith that the aforesaid Plaintiff his action aforesaid against them to have or maintain ought not, because they saith that . . . the said William Spear, in his life time did pay unto the aforesaid Plaintiff the said sum of Money in the Condition of the said Writing Obligatory mentioned with legal Interest thereon according to the form and effect of the said Writing Obligatory and this they are ready to verify, wherefore they pray Judgment if the aforesaid Plaintiff his action aforesaid against them to have or maintain ought and so forth.

And the aforesaid Plaintiff John Moale by his attorney aforesaid saith that he by any thing by the said Defendants above in pleading alledged from having or maintaining his action aforesaid against them ought not to be precluded, because he saith that . . . the said William Spear did not pay unto him the aforesaid Plaintiff the aforesaid sum of Money in the Condition aforesaid mentioned with the Interest thereon in such manner and form as the said Defendants above by pleading have alledged and this he prays may be enquired of by the Country, and the said Defendants in like manner and so forth.

Therefore let a Jury thereon appear before the Court here on the second Tuesday of May next; by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth, to recognize and so forth, because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the said parties then and there and so forth.

And now at this day to wit, the said second Tuesday of May being the thirteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety four comes again into the General Court here the aforesaid parties by their Attornies aforesaid And the aforesaid Defendants by their Attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment aforesaid above by them pretended, say that they cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid John Moale the Plaintiff so as aforesaid against them brought nor but that they detain from the aforesaid Plaintiff

Plaintiff John Moale the aforesaid sum of Nine hundred and sixty one Pounds one Shilling and Eleven pence half penny Current money in Specie in manner and form aforesaid so as the aforesaid John Moale above against them hath declared.

Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the aforesaid John Moale the Plaintiff recover against the said Defendants as well the sum of Nine hundred and sixty one pounds one shilling and eleven pence Current Money in . . . his Debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed as the quantity of Twelve hundred and twenty seven pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto the aforesaid Plaintiff on his Assent adjudged for his damages sustained as well by reason of the detention of that Debt as for his Costs and charges by him about his Suit in this behalf laid out and expended, to be levied of the land and tenement which were of the said William Spear at the time of his death, in the possession of the said Defendant him at law by Rreditary descent, and that the said John Moale have thereof his execution &c

Memorandum. Judgment rendered in this cause on the fourteenth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety four for the Penalty of the Bond and costs of Suit and the Plaintiff agrees to release the Penalty upon the payment of Principal, Interest and Costs; and agrees to stay Execution until the first day of January next, payments if any to be allowed.
