to shew cause if any for himself he hath, or to say know, why the aforesaid William Mollison ought not to have his Execution against him, for the Debt, Damages Costs and Charges aforesaid, of the goods and chattels which belonged to the said William Lux at the time of his death in the hands of the aforesaid Daniel Bowley to be administered being to be made and levied, according to the face form and effect of the recognizance aforesaid if unto him it shall seem meet, and further to do and receive all and singular those things which our Judges aforesaid shall then and there consider concerning him; and have you then and there the names of those before whom you shall make the same known unto him and this writ. Witness the honourable Samuel Chase Esquire chief Judge of our said Court the 14th day of February 1792. Issued the 9th day of April 1792. (WC) John Irwin, Clk.

At which mentioned second Tuesday in May being the eighth day of the same month in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety two comes into the General Court here the aforesaid William Mollison by his attorney — aforesaid: and the Sheriff of Baltimore County to wit Robert — Gorsuch Gentleman to whom the said aforegoing writ of Scirefacias was in form aforesaid directed likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus indorsed, to wit;

Made known 25th Apri 1792. Robert Gorsuch Sheriff.

And the said Daniel Bowley Executor of William Lux aforesaid appears in Court here, and prays leave of the Court to imparl until the second Tuesday of October next; and he hath it the same day is given to the aforesaid William Mollison also.

At which said second Tuesday in October being the ninth day of the same month in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety two, comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid William Mollison by his attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid Daniel Bowley Executor aforesaid by Luther Martin, David McMecken and Jehulon Hollingsworth his attornies; and thereupon on motion of the aforesaid William Mollison by his attorney aforesaid, It is ruled by the Court here that the aforesaid — Daniel Bowley answer to the Writ — aforesaid of the aforesaid William Mollison in the plea aforesaid, or Judgment by the Court here will be entered against him in default thereof, and the aforesaid David Bowley Executor aforesaid defends the force and injury, injury when and so forth, and prays leave of the Court here to imparl until the second Tuesday of May next and then to answer unto the Writ aforesaid of the aforesaid William Mollison in the plea aforesaid and to him it is granted the same day is given to the aforesaid William Mollison also.

At which said second Tuesday in May being the fourteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety three, to which said day the said Daniel Bowley had leave to imparle and then to answer unto the writ aforesaid of the aforesaid William Mollison in the plea aforesaid, comes again into the General Court here, as well the aforesaid William Mollison by his attorney aforesaid, as the aforesaid Daniel Bowley Executor aforesaid by his attorneys aforesaid; and the said Daniel Bowley by his attorneys aforesaid, saith that the said William Mollison ought not to have his Execution against him of the Debt Damages Costs and Charges aforesaid because he saith that there is no such record of the undertaking of the said William Lux for the said John Beath in manner and form as the said William Mollison hath above alledged and this he is ready to verify: Wherefore he prays Judgment if the said William Mollison ought to have his Execution for the said Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges and so forth.

And the said Daniel with the leave of the Court first had according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided further comes and saith that the said William Mollison his Execution aforesaid against him the said Daniel for the said Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges ought not because he saith that there is no such Record of the recovery against the said Beath of the said Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges in the said Writ of Scirefacias mentioned in manner and form as the said William Mollison hath above alledged and this he is ready to verify; Wherefore he prays Judgment if the said William Mollison his Execution against the said Daniel for the said Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges ought to have and so forth.

And the said Daniel with the leave of the Court first had according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided further comes and saith that the said William Mollison his Execution aforesaid against him the said Daniel for the said Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges to have ought not and so forth because he saith that after the rendition of the,
