Beale to pay rent to John Booger, and that he paid him two years rent and one year remained due, and he insisted for a receipt for what he had paid, and instead of a receipt George Elder drew a Bond for four hundred pounds and old Booger signed it, and George Elder and James Beale signed as Witnesses, and I told him the people said he killed old Booger, and he replied that he lived too long, and I asked him the reason why nobody knew of it but James Neale, and George Elder, who lived so far off. He said Squire Bromwell knew of the Bond being due, and could prove it. Squire Bromwell lived near to old Booger. Joseph Norris

Thomas Wilson Esquire one of the Justices of the peace in and for the County of Huntingdon being produced, and duly sworn upon his Corporal Oath upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposeth and saith. Yes. about twenty years. To the second, answereth, Huntingdon County State of Pennsylvania, about 70 Miles. To the third, answereth in the last of June or July he removed to Cumberland Valley. To the fourth, answereth, yes he could understand some words. To the fifth answereth, dishonest and designing. He does not obtain the character of a hard working Man and gets part of his living by defraud: he is not considered fit to be intrusted. To the sixth, answereth, yes he has run away he is an idle, worth less Man. To the seventh, answereth, I heard him say he could understand some chance words but not much. To the eighth, answereth, They frequently associated together, I knew them to have connexion and knew of a Bill of Sale of all James Neale's property to George Elder acknowledged before me. To the ninth answereth, I am somewhat acquainted with him near three years, I never heard any good of him To the tenth, answereth, I do not know. To the eleventh, answereth. yes, I do, I think in the Spring of 1792 twice or three times. To the twelfth answereth, I did not see them together. To the thirteenth, I do not. Thursday Evening 14th Nov. 1794. The Commissioners met in pursuance of adjournment, to wit, Benjamin Elliot, Andrew Henderson, and John Cadwallader at the House of Alexander Dean in the Town of Huntingdon and proceeded to the examination of witnesses in the presence of

of the respective parties. Martin Mikesell of Hopewell Township, Farmer, is produced, and upon his Corporal Oath upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposeth and saith. To the first Interrogatory answereth It is three years since last Spring since my first acquaintance with him. To the second, answereth, I always accounted it about 70 Miles in Pennsylvania. To the third answereth, I am informed he lives in Cumberland Valley, removed some time last Spring. To the fourth answereth, I never heard him say he could; and do not know whether he can. To the fifth answereth, The General Character is, that where ever he has dealings with People, he cheats them. In the Neighbourhood where he lived, he was considered a dishonest man he is not considered fair in his dealings, he lives more by cheating his Neighbours, by the Account I have of him, than by work; He is not considered by the people in our Neighbourhood fit to be intrusted with drawing writings. To the sixth, answereth, he is considered an idle, worthless, man, I know him. To the seventh, answereth, he and George Elder frequently associate together. James Neale made a Bill of Sale of all he has to George Elder as he told me. To the ninth, answereth, I never had much acquaintance with him, his general Character from what I always understood was not very good. To the tenth, answereth, I do not know. To the eleventh answereth yes, I remember seeing him in the Woodcock Valley in the Spring of 1792. To the twelfth, answereth, I do not know. The above Answers being read, and examined by me are just and true.

Samuel Hartsack of Hopewell Township, Farmer being duly sworn upon his Corporal Oath upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposeth and saith. To the first Interrogatory, answereth, I have known him 16 or 17 years. To the second, answereth, I do not know the distance the Valley is in the County of Huntingdon and State of Pennsylvania. To the third, answereth, He removed since April last and believes lives in Cumberland Valley. To the fourth, answereth, I believe he cannot. To the fifth answereth, The General Character of the Man is, that he is not an honest man, he is not an industrious man his character is
