aforesaid Sum of eight hundred pounds Current money his debt aforesaid as also the quantity of four thousand three hundred and fifty six pounds of Tobacco by the Court here adjudged unto the said Christopher Sides for his damages which he had sustained as well by reason of the detention of the debt aforesaid as for his Costs and Charges by him about his Suit in this behalf laid out and expended, to be levied of the Goods and Chattels which were of the said John Booger at the time of his death remaining to be administered in the hands and Custody of the said Henry Schnebely if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath and if so much thereof he hath not then the damages Costs and Charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper goods and Chattels of the said Henry Schnebely And the Court now here agreeably to the Act of Assembly certify that there were probable grounds and reasons for the said Henry Schnebely Executor as aforesaid to defend and withstand this Suit.

Before the Jurors retired from the Bar certain exceptions were taken and signed and which are as follow.

Christopher Sides
vs
Henry Schnebely Exor of John Booger.

In the Tryal of the Issue in this cause the Plaintiff by a Witness sworn to the Jury offered to prove that Christopher Sides the Plaintiff in this cause for 18 Months prior to the Execution of the Bond was in a State of such Imbecility of body as to foul and dirty himself in his breeches, and that the Plaintiff and his Wife wiped and cleaned him thro' that period as a fact to shew the situation in which Sides and Booger stood with respect to each other and from which the Jury were at liberty to presume if they thought proper that the said Booger executed the Bond declared on.

The Deft admitted the evidence of the Imbecility of the said Booger but objected to the evidence of the Services performed by the Plaintiff and his Wife: of which opinion was the Court and refused the said evidence, to which Opinion of the Court the Council for the Plaintiff prayed leave to except and that the Court would sign and seal this his Bill of Exception.

vs
Henry Schnebely Exor of John Booger

Debt October Term 1794.

The Defendant to maintain on his part the Issue of Non est factum proved that John Booger mentioned in the bond on which this Action is brought was an illiterate German & that the two persons whose names appear as the subscribing Witnesses to the said Bond lived at the time of the date thereof & long before & afterwards in the State of Pennsylvania above seventy miles from the House in which the Plaintiff alleges the said Bond was executed and gave in evidence to the Jury that the said two persons whose names appear as the subscribing Witnesses to the said Bond and the Plaintiff were persons of general bad Character; and the Defendant further to maintain the Issue on his part offered to prove in evidence to the Jury that many persons of respectable Characters who spoke both the German & English language lived in the neighbourhood of John Booger at the time the Plaintiff alledges the Bond on which this Action is brought was executed. To which evidence the Plaintiff by his Council objected, but the Court were of Opinion that the said evidence was proper to be offered to the Jury as a Circumstance for their Consideration & from which they might infer that the said John Booger did not execute the said Bond. To which Opinion of the Court the Plaintiff by his Counsel excepts and prays the Court to sign and seal this his Bill of Exception agreeably to the Statute in such Case made and provided which is accordingly done this eighteenth day of October 1794.
