thence South fifty seven Degrees, East twenty four perches to a Cedar post fixed by this Jury appointed to Divide Hales Folly as a point of division between Lott Number One and the adjoining Lott, then South thirty seven perches to another Cedar Post fixed by the Jury then North Eighty nine and one quarter degrees West thirty four perches to another Cedar post on the Turnpike road then with the Turnpike road North ten degrees West Eight perches still with the Turnpike road North one half Degree East thirty seven and three quarter perches to another Cedar Post fixed in the first Line of the said Tract of Land called Hales Folly then North seventy degrees East fifteen and one Half perches to the place of Beginning for Lott Number One containing Nine and one half Acres of Land.

Beginning for Lott Number two at the Stone fixed by the Commissioners aforesaid for the Beginning of Hales Folly and running North seventy degrees East fifty six perches & nine feet to a Cedar post on the Turnpike Road then with the Turnpike Road south one half a Degree West twenty nine and one half perches to another Cedar post then South Eighty One and one half degrees West thirty Eight perches three feet to a Cedar Post fixed in the Given line of Hales Folly, then North forty four Degrees West twenty two perches to the Beginning for seven Acres and Ten perches of Land.

Beginning for Lott Number three at the post fixed in the given line of Hales Folly as a point division between Lott Number two and three and runing thence North Eighty One Degrees East thirty Eight perches three feet to a Cedar Post on the Turnpike Road this being the dividing line between Number two and three then with the Turnpike Road south one half a degree West Eight and one half perches still with the Turnpike Road South ten degrees East forty three and one quarter perches to a Cedar post in the given line of Hales Folly then North forty four degrees West to the beginning Cedar Post for six and one half Acres of land.—

Beginning for Lott Number four at a Cedar post fixed on the East side of the Turnpike road as the point of division between Lott Number One and Lott Number four and runing South Eighty Nine and one quarter degrees East thirty four perches to another Cedar post fixed as the second boundary of Lott Number One then

(South)

South forty Eight perches thirteen feet to a Cedar post fixed in the second line of Salisbury Plains then with the said second line of Salisbury Plains reversly North Seventy and one half degrees West twenty one and one half perches to a cedar post fixed in the given line of Hales Folly then with the given line North forty four degrees West ten perches to the Turnpike Road then with the Turnpike road North ten degrees West thirty nine and three quarter perches to the Beginning containing Eighty Acres and three quarters of Land.—

Beginning for Lott Number five at a Cedar post fixed at the end of the second line of Salisbury Plains and running North twenty two and one half degrees East twenty Eight perches to a Locust post then South fifty seven and one half degrees East seventy Eight and one half perches to another Cedar post fixed in the third line of Hales Folly then with the said line South seventeen degrees West thirty Eight and one half perches to another Cedar post then North fifty six and one quarter degrees West Eighty perches to a Cedar post on the third line of Salisbury Plains then to the Beginning for seventeen Acres of Land.

Beginning for Lott number Six at the Cedar post fixed on the third line of Hales Folly as the fourth boundary of Lott Number five and runing South seventeen degrees West forty four and one half perches to a Cedar post fixed at the end of the said third line of Hales Folly then With the given line of Hales Folly North forty four degrees West Eighty two perches to a cedar post in the third line of Salisbury Plains then bounding on the the third line of Salisbury Plains reversly to the Beginning for fixteen and One half Acres of and sixteen perches of Land.

Beginning for Lott number Seven at a Tree and Stone fixed as the third bounded Tree by the Commissioners appointed to fix and ascertain the boundaries of Hales Folly and runing with the outline of Hales Folly South seventeen degrees West thirty two perches to a Cedar post fixed as the third boundary of Lott Number five then runing with the division line between Lotts Number five and seven North fifty seven and one half degrees East seventy Eight and one half perches to another Cedar fixed as the second boundary of Lott Number five then North twenty two and one half degrees East thirty three and one half perches to a Cedar post in the South fifty seven degrees East line of Hales Folly then South fifty seven degrees East to the Beginning containing

(fifteen)