

ROUE TO SEEK SENATE

Sen. John C. Stennis, Democrat of Mississippi, today announced that he will seek re-election to the Senate in 1952.

Stennis, who has served in the Senate since 1934, said he will run for re-election in the November election.

He said he has received many offers of support from his constituents and that he feels confident of success.

Stennis is a member of the Senate Finance Committee and has been active in various legislative efforts.

He has also been instrumental in the passage of several important bills, including those related to agriculture and education.

Stennis said he will continue to represent the interests of his constituents in the Senate.

He said he will continue to work for the improvement of the lives of the people of Mississippi.
