LADY ASTOR COMES HOME . . . Pictured against a backdrop of a British flag at the pier, following their arrival in New York City, are Lord and Lady Astor. The viscountess, American-born former member of parliament, is en route to Virginia to visit relatives. When asked her plans, Lady Astor stated that she "might run for congress." Matter of lack of American citizenship stands in her way at present, however.

LEADS FRANCE . . . Felix Gouin, 61, Socialist leader of the constituent assembly, who has been elected as interim president of France. He replaces Gen. Charles de Gaulle, having received 497 votes out of a possible 555.

PAULEY TO NAVY . . . Edwin W. Pauley, California oil man, has been named by President Truman to be undersecretary of the navy. Washington reports that he will be named head of the merged army-navy when and if authorized.

NAVY'S COACH . . . Capt. Thomas J. Hamilton, who has just been appointed head football coach of the U. S. naval academy. This will be his second coaching tour at Annapolis, having coached in 1934, 1935 and 1936.

FLORIDA BIRDS WELCOME "MRS. WINNIE" . . . Vacationing in Miami with her distinguished husband, Mrs. Winston Churchill, wife of Britain's wartime prime minister, enjoys a session with the glamorous denizens of [illegible] parrot jungle. She is surrounded by macaws and cockatoos, which are not in the least timid or awed by the gracious lady. Her husband is spending most of his time with his hobby, oil painting.

RESERVE BOARD . . . Comdr. James K. Vardaman Jr., naval aide to President Truman, nominated for a 14-year term on the Federal Reserve board of governors. Vardaman, a former St. Louis banker, is the son of the late U. S. senator of Mississippi.

FUTURE FARMERS AT WHITE HOUSE . . . President Truman shown as he received members of the board of trustees of the "Future Farmers of America." Left to right: [illegible]; President Truman; [illegible]. The organization has an active membership of [illegible], all training to become farmers.

PRESENT AND FUTURE . . . "Another glass of milk and I'll be there, pop," says three-year-old Jackie as he compares muscles with his dad, light-heavyweight champion Gus Lesnevich, who was just discharged from service. He has announced that he will soon book fights.
