THE YOUNGER SET

What's this we hear about Alvin Horney making eyes at one of those freshman girls. Better watch her, Alvin, its a girls privilege to change her mind but not too much.

What's wrong with Harold Thomas? He just can't try to get a date with those sophomore girls at S H S. Maybe you should learn a different approach or turn your affection in another direction, Harold.

Question for Marion Quimby: Where was John the night of Feb. 3?

Why did Charles Ford leave his car out at the end of a certain lane one Sunday nite? Afraid you'll have to pay toll?

Won't you all agree Annabel Conway looked adorable last Friday night. She had many compliments. Don't know if they told her, but they sure talked among themselves. Charlie must have thought so too, he looked long and hard.

Hear Ramon Lane is using big words. Do you know what they mean, Ramon?

Christine, you don't have to save that seat in the movies on Saturday because "Teddie" goes on Friday nights. But he works Saturday nights.

Gloria Wyatt, where were you on the night of Feb. 13, 1946? Well, what were you doing there? Did you have a nice time?

Quiz for Betty Benton:
What makes you swoon so over Carville Tolson? Although we have not really had the opportunity to look into his eyes!

We wish Desmond Burk's would come in to the Friday nite dances instead of sitting in the car. It must have been pretty lonesome out there Ed, or was it?

It seems now instead of 3 lone wolves J. C.—D. W.—R. S.—there is only two left.

Someone is playing tricks on a group of them—E. T. M. N. C. T. don't think its fair either. E. T. would like to know who called him up. He'd like to make another date. Please call again!

Hear Arnold Thomas is on the loose again. Girls. Calling all girls. Be on the look-out—that is all—the rest is up to you!

Can't get over it how good June Freeman looks. She's some number. Also Colleen should wear her hair loose more often. Does things for her.

Everybody is wishing Carville Tolson would make up his mind. What's the matter, Carville. Are you scared to take Frances around because Betty will get mad or vice versa?

Heard a fellow ask a girl why she likes a bird in hand better than two in the bush? Do you know why Billy Crouch should get out on the floor and jitterbug more. You're really hep, Billy!

Why, well somebody tell me, do the boys like ping-pong better than dancing. They must be allergic to girls. Don't seem possible!

Everything is beginning to be a little dull. I can't see why you don't do something that will make news.

SPORTS
by
GEORGE W. ALDRIDGE, JR.

At present, the Eastern Shore is more sport minded than ever before. Currently featured are several basketball leagues, many independent teams, and a team in practically every high school on the Shore. Badminton has come back after being absent during the war as has bowling. Looking toward the Spring and baseball days, we'll have the reorganized Eastern Shore League, the Central Shore and Mar-Del Semi-Pro Leagues, and an American Legion Junior Baseball League. There will also be many softball leagues up and down the Sho' and the pre-war amount of fishing, water sports, and boat races. The Baltimore papers and their sport writers don't seem to want to recognize us as being sport minded but thanks to Ed Nichols of the Salisbury Times, Bill Dyer of station WTBO, Bailey Goss of station WBAL and the Wilmington dailies, we're getting plenty of coverage.

The Eastern Shore League seems to be rapidly shaping up for a record season. Coach Tom Kibler of Washington College is the league president for the 1946 season. The league will consist of teams from Dover, Milford, Seaford, Salisbury, Cambridge, Easton, Federalsburg, and Centreville. The official schedule calls for each team to play 126 games.

Centreville will be a farm team of the Baltimore Orioles with Jack Dunn, III, as their Club President and Business Manager. The Orioles are bringing approximately 25 men into Centreville the last of April. Two of these will be Harry Ballod, a righthander from Chester, Pa., and Lee Kreitman, and infielder from Baltimore. It has been rumored that Jim McLeod will manage the club although at this writing, he is still in the service. The locals will open their season when they meet Cambridge, a farm club for the Brooklyn Dodgers, in Centreville on May 9th. Let's all be there to give them the right kind of send-off for a big season.

Queen Anne's County has three representatives in the basketball world, Sudlersville High School, Centreville High School, and the County Legion Team. The Centreville High boys have a record of 4 won and 7 lost. Bobby Cole, a local boy, is the second highest scorer for the quintet. Their girls' team has won 8 and lost 3. The Legion team has won their last two games bringing their totals to four won and four lost. They've just added two former Washington College forwards to their already strong squad which makes them a threat to every team on the Shore.

Bill Nicholson, of Chestertown and the heaviest slugger in the National League, is having contract troubles with th eChicago Cubs. At this writing, he still hasn't signed. He says he is in the top of condition and expects his biggest year in '46. Bill has kept in shape this winter by plenty of hunting and farming on his place near Chestertown.

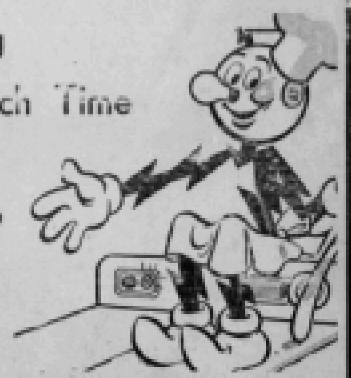
Spending Too Much Time In Your Kitchen?



Electric Cookery Releases Many Hours from Needless Kitchen Toil

If you're spending a good part of your time in the kitchen trying to cook good meals from an undependable stove, with countless hours of scrubbing sooty pots and pans and kitchen walls, you're due for a thrill when you install a grand, new electric range.

An electric range requires no pot-watching — simple timing directions give same-assured results every time. And constant oven-peeking is a thing of the past. All you do is set the temperature and forget it until the time says the food is ready for the table. No sooty pots and pans and walls to scrub because electric cookery is as clean as electric light.
