QUEEN ANNE

Queen Anne in Centreville,
Chester-On-Wye,
Miller Alice at Queenstown,
Of sail canvas smallcloths
And song birds on high.
The oysters and blue crabs
And black heads and perch
And oyster secret hamlets
With each one a church.

It hosts and old Corsairs
Orchards that grow
The peach and the pear
As in long time ago.
It is granges and gatherings
Of women and men
Who lift the bright banners
Of justice again.

It is Andrus and Bar
And a Rte county seat
Where music and art
And a library meet.
It is town in April,
And autumn's gold wheat,
And the ears of the corsairs,
The fun that runs fleet.

THE FARMER AND THE CHILD

A Catholic Priest of Baltimore, in a sermon to the Sunday School scholars and their parents, used as his text: "The Farmer and the Child," continuing he said: "The farmer prepared his land and seeded it and watched it grow daily, but he neglected to keep the crop cultivated and weeds smothered it out," which apply to children. "If they do not receive plenty of cultivation and know training while young, their lives can be smothered out or blighted by bad company."

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

WESLEY H. WILSON, Plaintiff versus
MARY MADELINE McGRATH WILSON, Defendant

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY
IN EQUITY
Cause No. 3466

The object of this suit is to procure a decree of divorce A Vinculo Matrimonii to the Plaintiff, Wesley H. Wilson, from the Defendant, Mary Madeline McGrath Wilson.

The Bill of Complaint recites that the parties were married on October 15, 1941 at Centreville, Queen Anne's County, Maryland, which he was in the armed forces of the United States and that they saw each other as man and wife until sometime in the month of April 1943, that though the conduct of the Plaintiff towards his wife, the Defendant, was always, kind, affectionate and above reproach, the Defendant without any just cause or reason abandoned and deserted him, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least 18 months, prior to the filing of this Bill, and said abandonment is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that no children were born as a result of the said marriage; that the Plaintiff is a resident of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, where he has resided for 2 years immediately preceding the filing of this Bill, and that the Defendant is a resident of Petersburg, Va.

IT IS THEREUPON, ORDERED by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, and by the authority thereof on this 29th day of January, 1946, that the Plaintiff Wesley H. Wilson, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, once in each of 4 successive weeks before the 1st day of March, 1946 next, give notice to the said absent Defendant, Mary Madeline McGrath Wilson of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, warning her to be and appear in this Court, in person or by Solicitor, before the 15th day of March, 1946, next to show cause, if any she has, why a decree should not be so prayed.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

AVERY: "I've heard that same thing several times lately . . . that alcoholics are really sick people. It was news to me. Do you agree with that statement, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes, it's true, Henry. It's the opinion of many . . . it's a statement made by scientists who have studied the subject."

HENRY: "What did they find out, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Well, as a result of their medical research, they found out that approximately 90% of the people who drink, drink socially 5% do so onwards, at times. Included in that 5% is the small percentage known as alcoholics."

HENRY: "But why are they called sick people?"

OLD JUDGE: "Because it has been discovered that, in many cases, excessive drinking is a symptom of some physical or emotional maladjustment...not the cause of it."

HENRY: "Now I understand it, Judge. I am glad to hear of the modern approach to this problem and that so much is really being done to help these folks."
