Archibald Orme aged sixty four years being sworn upon the holy Evangels of Almighty God and standing upon the west line of Hermitage as located by Defendant with a correction for the variation deposeth and saith that when he surveyed the Tract of land called Bradfords Rest diminished he was informed that the west line of Hermitage had a call to rock creek that therefore he turned out of Bradfords Rest all the land lying to the south of said line that at the time he surveyed Bradfords rest diminished the west line of Hermitage upon which line he confined the lines of Bradfords Rest diminished run more to the northward than the line now shewn by this Deponent that at that time he was generally informed by the Tenants upon Bradfords Rest and others that Bradfords rest had been cleared up to the west line of Hermitage and that the wood standing belonged to the Hermitage. That along this line there are a number of blazed trees which appear to have been marked a considerable length of time but how long ago this Deponent cannot say.
