called Mary's Meadow, as run by Aquila Carr upwards of forty eight years ago being further examined affirms that at or near the place he now stands being a lime stone Rock marked M.M. was the end of the fifth line of said tract as run by Aquila Carr at the same time the said Price being further examined solemnly affirms that at the same time as above mentioned, that the said Aquila Carr in running the given line of said Tract of Land run at or near where he now stands & further this affirment saith not.

Taken & affirm'd to on the survey this 26th day of January 1796. — John Price

The Deposition of Jeremiah Johnson Esquire aged seventy one years or thereabouts being legally sworn deposeth and saith that about twenty four years ago or upwards this Deponent was called on by John Gill and Aquila Price to run the given line of a Tract of land called Mays Meadow, at which time the said John Gill and Aquila Price shewed him this Deponent a stake set in the ground at or near the place where he now stands, which they said was set up at the end of the last line of the said tract of land called mays meadow as run by James Everett and that this Deponent run from said stake to the beginning trees of the aforesaid tract of Land & further this deponent saith not.

Taken and sworn to on the Survey this 25th day of January 1796. — Jere. Johnson

The Affirmation of Mordecai Price one of the people called quakers aged sixty four years or thereabouts, solemnly affirms that upwards of forty eight years ago that he saw Aquila Carr run the lines of a Tract of Land called Mary's Meadow and in running the fourth line of said land that it run where he this affirmant now stands, near where there was a Tobacco House and a crab apple tree stands about two perches West of the said line.

Taken and affirmed to on the Survey this 26th day of January 1796. — Mordecai Price

The Deposition of Mary Cole aged seventy one years or thereabouts being legally sworn deposeth and saith that upwards of Thirty eight years ago she saw James Moore a running the lines of a Tract of Land Called Mary's meadow and in running a line of said land that it ran where she this deponent now stands and further saith not.

Taken and sworn to on the Survey this 26th day of January 1796 — Mary her + mark Cole

The Deposition of John Kemp aged forty seven years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth & saith that about Twenty eight years ago he this Deponent was present when the lines of (a Tract)

a Tract of Land called Mays Meadows was run by a certain James Everit and that in running the second line of said land they run by a white Oak, where he this deponent now standeth and that he marked the said white Oak for the line of the said land & further this Deponent saith not.

Taken & sworn to on the Survey this 2d day of February 1796. — John Kemp

The Deposition of Benjamin Price aged forty Eight years or thereabouts being legally sworn deposeth & saith that his Brother Aquila Price signified to him this Deponent that the line between him & John Gill jun. stood on or near the line as it then was run and further he this Deponent saith that he heard his brother Aquila Price say that he the said Aquila Price and John Gill jun. were to keep up the division fence for some time between them and this deponent further saith that he knew of no marks or boards being set up to ascertain & establish said line except the fence and further this Deponent saith not.

Taken and sworn to on the Survey this 3d day of February 1796. — Benjamin Price

The Affirmation of John Price one of the people called quakers aged forty seven years or thereabouts solemnly affirms that upwards of forty eight years ago he saw Aquila Carr run a Tract of Land called Mays Meadow and that in running the second line of said Land he run by a large white Oak the stump of which remaineth where he this affirment now standeth and the said John Price being further examined affirmeth & saith that at the same time as above mentioned he saw Aquila Carr run on line of the aforesaid Tract of land called Mays meadow at or near the place where he now stands being about two perches from a forked white Oak stump which this affirmant saith ought to have been the end of the fourth line of said land and further this affirmant saith that he dont remember that the said Aquila Carr at that time ran the third line of said land but thinks he did not. The said John Price being further examined solemnly affirms that at the same time as above mentioned the said Aquila Carr in running the given line of said Tract of Land run at or near the place where he now stands, & further this affirment saith not.

Taken and affirmed to on the Survey this fourth day of July 1796 — John Price

The Affirmation of Mordecai Price one of the people called quakers aged sixty four years or thereabouts affirmeth and saith that about forty eight years ago or thereabouts he saw Aquila Carr run a line of a Tract (of)