TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF MARYLNAD

I hereby announce my candidacy for election as Representative in the Congress of the United States from the First Congressional District of Maryland, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held June 24, 1946.

It will not be possible for me to make a personal call on every voter of this District during the campaign, but I will contact as many as time will permit, and discuss with them such matters as they feel most abortive.

I earnestly solicit the support of the voters of the District at the polls and pledge that, if I am elected, I will give conscientious representation to the citizenry thereof, being ever responsive to their wishes and best interests as these are known to me, and as they may be disclosed by careful investigation.

Respectfully,
EMERSON C. HARRINGTON, Jr.

"Yes, sir—I had given up as many do in such cases. That's what pain's doing to me. But when pains first commenced I got relief from LAKEN'S 9 DROPS. Kept on taking and relief continued. Now I'm thankful to say I'm entirely free from pains, and feel splendid, and I'm expecting to think about pain from now on."

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

TED: "Clem and I were wonderin' what you thought of that new movie about the criminal, Alcoholic, Judge. Understand you saw it before we did."

OLD JUDGE: "Well... it's true most of us never see a case or criminal as that in real life because they are so few and far between. But it does point out one thing... Chronic alcoholics are abnormal people and we're not to change our ideas about how to help them."

CLEM: "In what way, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "We've got to realize that excessive drinkers are suffering from more than a craving for alcohol. According to psychiatrists and medical men at one of our great universities, the alcoholic is a sick person. The study of hundreds of cases shows he is suffering from some physical, social or emotional condition... just as in the case of that poor chap in the picture. Fortunately, they represent only a very small percentage of those who drink."

TED: "Is anything being done to really help these folks, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes... a great deal in clinics throughout the country. And with the cooperation of the beverage dealers who sincerely want their product used only in moderation."
